Television Toby Miller, 2003 Resources in Education, 1990-04 Dynamics of Meteor Outbursts and Satellite Mitigation Strategies Glenn E. Peterson, 1999 The potential threat posed by Leonid meteoroids to orbiting spacecraft over the next several years calls for new dynamic mitigation strategies to assist the satellite community in reducing the danger to its vehicles This book offers deliberate dynamic mitigation strategies to complement the traditional shielding strategies providing mission operators additional ways to decrease the danger Five different attitude control and orbit maneuvering options are examined in detail The information is presented in algorithmic form to allow technically competent but meteoroid inexperienced operators to easily understand the phenomena assess the danger and implement procedures Although general in scope the book emphasizes the Leonid meteor events of the 1998 2002 timeframe The Rowman & Littlefield Handbook of Media Management and Business L. Meghan Mahoney, Tang Tang, 2020-12-15 The Rowman Littlefield Handbook of Media Management and Business connects research and industry practice to offer a strategic guide for aspiring and current media professionals in convergent environments As a comprehensive one stop reference for understanding business issues that drive the production and distribution of content that informs entertains and persuades audiences aims to inspire and inform forward thinking media management leaders The handbook examines media management and business through a convergent media approach rather than focusing on medium specific strategies By reflecting media management issues in the information entertainment sports gaming industries contributed chapters explore the unique opportunities and challenges brought by media convergence while highlighting the fundamental philosophy concepts and practices unchanged in such a dynamic environment this handbook examines media management through a global perspective and encourages readers to connect their own diverse development to a broader global context It is an important addition to the growing literature in Communication and Democracy Maxwell E. McCombs, Donald L. Shaw, David H. Weaver, 2013-11-05 Exciting intellectual frontiers are open for exploration as agenda setting theory moves beyond its 25th anniversary This volume offers an intriguing set of maps to guide this exploration over the near future It is intended for those who are already reasonably well read in the research literature that has accumulated since the publication of McCombs and Shaw's original 1972 Public Opinion Quarterly article This piece of literature documented the influence of the news media agenda on the public agenda in a wide variety of geographic and social settings elaborated the characteristics of audiences and media that enhance or diminish those agenda setting effects and cataloged those exogenous factors explaining who sets the media's agenda In the current volume a provocative set of maps for explicating new levels of agenda setting theory have been sketched by a new generation of young scholars launching an enterprise that has significant implications for theoretical research and for the day to day role of mass communication in democratic societies At the first level of agenda setting are agendas of objects the traditional domain of agenda setting research represented by an accumulation of hundreds of studies over the past quarter century At the second level of agenda setting are agendas of attributes one of the new theoretical frontiers whose aspects are discussed in detail in the opening chapters Other chapters offer maps of yet other theoretical frontiers including political advertising agendas and their impact on behavior the framing of various agendas in the mass media and the differential impact of print and TV the theoretical role of individual differences in the agenda setting influence of the news media on the public agenda methodological advances for determining cause and effect roles in agenda setting and the application of agenda setting theory to historical analysis This volume is an invitation to others to become active members of the invisible college of agenda setting scholarship As such the goals of this book are threefold to introduce a broad set of ideas about agenda setting to enrich the exploration of these ideas by enhancing scholarly dialogue among the members of this invisible college and to enhance the discussion of agenda setting research in seminars and research groups around the world Agenda setting has remained a vital and productive area of communication research over a quarter century because it has continued to introduce new research questions into the marketplace of ideas and to integrate this work with other theoretical concepts and perspectives about journalism and mass communication Understanding the dynamics of agenda setting is central to understanding the dynamics of contemporary democracy This book s set of theoretical essays grounded in the accumulated literature of agenda setting theory and in the creative insights of young scholars will help lead the way toward that understanding
