Atonement Chris Woodall, 2015-01-27 Scripture's presentation of the gospel message is intrinsically disagreeable It does not initially soothe man or comfort him or reassure him in his path but violently opposes the anthropocentric conditioning of his mind which is universally bound in slavery to the sinful nature Where divine truth grapples with human deceit the natural instinct of conservation within man causes him to hide behind his misconception of self sufficiency self congratulatory achievement and pseudo religiosity in order to protect and preserve against the divine charge The Word of God and the mind of man are diametrically opposed and only the Spirit of God can unite them by imparting faith In much the same way God s holiness and man s unrighteousness can only be bridged by the central theme of this work the atonement of God s Son Jesus Christ

The New Bottoming Book Dossie Easton, Janet W. Hardy, 2011-06-09 Three decades ago this book and its companion volume The New Topping Book began teaching tens of thousands of people the joyous arts of BDSM topping and bottoming not just how to but why to the insider details of emotional support and ethical interaction during kinky play Since then the growing popularity of BDSM and the blossoming of the Internet as a source of information and connection have created a whole new universe of possibilities for players Now the completely updated revised New Bottoming Book and New Topping Book give even more insights and ideas updated for a new millennium about how to be a successful popular player What the experts are saying The only way I can think of to learn more about botttming than Dossie Easton and Janet Hardy teach you in The New Bottoming Book is to go out and bottom for yourself William A Henkin Ph D co author Consensual Sadoomasochism

Metaphors of Confinement Monika Fludernik, 2019-08-13

Metaphors of Confinement The Prison in Fact Fiction and Fantasy offers a historical survey of imaginings of the prison as expressed in carceral metaphors in a range of texts about imprisonment from Antiquity to the present as well as non penal situations described as confining or restrictive These imaginings coalesce into a carceral imaginary that determines the way we think about prisons just as social debates about punishment and criminals feed into the way carceral imaginary develops over time Examining not only English language prose fiction but also poetry and drama from the Middle Ages to postcolonial particularly African literature the book juxtaposes literary and non literary contexts and contrasts fictional and nonfictional representations of imprisonment and discussions about the prison as institution and experiential reality. It comments on present day trends of punitivity and foregrounds the ethical dimensions of penal punishment. The main argument concerns the continuity of carceral metaphors through the centuries despite historical developments that included major shifts in policy such as the invention of the penitentiary. The study looks at selected carceral metaphors often from two complementary perspectives such as the home as prison or the prison as home or the factory as prison and the prison as factory. The case studies present particularly relevant genres and texts that employ these metaphors often from a historical perspective that analyses development through different periods.
