Reckon Approved Training Guide 2015:

Materializing the Bible James S. Bielo, 2021-08-12 What happens when the written words of biblical scripture are transformed into experiential choreographed environments To answer this question anthropologist James Bielo explores a diverse range of practices and places that materialize the Bible including gardens theme parks shrines museums memorials exhibitions theatrical productions and other forms of replication Integrating ethnographic archival and mass media data case studies focus primarily on U S Christianity from the late 19th century to the present Composed as 20 short chapters that may be read in any order the book is divided into three sections Section I Variations on Replication analyzes examples that recontextualize elements from the actual or imagined biblical past Section II The Power of Nature turns to the natural world associated with Christian scripture and how it is mobilized as a privileged media Section III Choreographing Experience examines lived interactions with the affordances of materializing the Bible Bielo argues that materializing the Bible works as an authorizing practice to intensify intimacies with scripture and circulate potent ideologies Performed through the sensory experience of bodies physical technologies and infrastructures of place Bielo illustrates how this phenomenon is always ultimately about expressions of power A Comprehensive Guide for Counselor Education Devona M.

Multisensory Shakespeare and Specialized Communities Sheila T. Cavanagh, 2024-01-25. How can theatre and Shakespearean performance be used with different communities to assist personal growth and development while advancing social justice goals? Employing an integrative approach that draws from science, actor training, therapeutical practices and current research on the senses, this study reveals the work being done by drama practitioners with a range of specialized populations such as incarcerated people, neurodiverse individuals, those with physical or emotional disabilities, veterans, people experiencing homelessness and many others. With insights drawn from visits to numerous international programs, it argues that these endeavors succeed when they engage multiple human senses and incorporate kinesthetic learning, thereby tapping into the diverse benefits associated with artistic movement and mindfulness practices. Neither theatre nor Shakespeare is universally beneficial, but the syncretic practices described in this book offer tools for physical, emotional and collaborative undertakings that assist personal growth and development while advancing social justice goals. Among the practitioners and companies whose work is examined here are programs from the Shakespeare in Prison Network, the International Opera Theater, Blue Apple Theatre, Flute Theatre, DeCruit and Feast of Crispian programs for veterans, Extant Theatre and prison programs in Kolkata and Mysore, India.

The Last Line: My Autobiography Packie Bonner, 2015-10-01. Irish national hero, a Celtic great and their most capped player, Patrick 'Packie' Bonner is a goalkeeping legend. He was Jock Stein's last signing for the club when he left his native Donegal for the city of Glasgow in 1978, where Packie evolved from being a shy, homesick teenager into a confident world-class talent and first-choice goalkeeper. Billy McNeill handed him a debut on St. Patrick's Day in 1979, and Packie went on to provide the last line of defence a record 641 times for the club. A seasoned Irish internationalist, Packie was a vital component in the most celebrated Irish national squad ever playing in a golden era under the tutelage of the inimitable Jack Charlton. In The Last Line, Packie shares stories from his incredible career, including his greatest moment in front of a global audience during the Italia 90 World Cup tournament when he became the penalty shoot-out hero of the nation by saving a spot-kick that took the Irish to the quarter-finals stage in their very first World Cup adventure. It was an iconic moment that would change his life forever, not least because whilst in Italy, he along with his teammates had an audience with another goalkeeper, Pope John Paul II. Throughout his 80-cap international career, he competed against the very best in the world. Men such as Ruud Gullit, Marco Van Basten, Gheorghe Hagi, Roberto Baggio and Gary Lineker came to know the name Packie Bonner. Equally in his glittering Celtic career that included the winning of four Scottish League titles, three Scottish Cups and one Scottish League Cup Packie Bonner played alongside some great Celtic names like Tommy Burns Paul McStay and Murdo Macleod Along the way Packie had to endure a career threatening back injury as well as the devastation of a routine save going wrong and costing a goal on the world stage against Holland in 1994 ultimately leading to elimination from the World Cup in America More than just the telling of trophies titles and triumphs this is the story of a Celtic legend and a true great of Irish International football
