Report Cards Wade H. Morris, 2023-09-26 This book tells the story of American education by examining this unique element of student life The author shows the evolution of how teachers students parents and administrators responded to report cards Report cards he shows were more than just a means by which a school documented each student s deportment academic standing and attendance They were a tool of control a microcosm for the changing power dynamics between teachers parents and students Creating a Healthy School Using the Healthy School Report Card, Canadian David K. Lohrmann, Sandra Vamos, Yeung, 2011-12-19 How well does your school support the health and well being of students and staff members Explore the answer with this ASCD Action Tool and accompanying online scoring and analysis tool Updated to reflect current research new standards and best practices the Canadian second edition of the action tool guides you through the four steps of the Healthy School Report Card process with rationale tips from successful participants and easy to use tools Tools for organizing can help you develop a school level process for working with your community Then you can use the scoring tools to assess your school s current health programming and create an evidence based environment that supports learning and teaching This Canadian second edition includes Updated indicators for the 11 characteristics of a healthy school Expanded description of how healthy school communities fit into ASCD s Whole Child Initiative Testimonials and lessons learned from sites that have implemented the Healthy School process More ideas for how schools can create plans that fit their unique situations and share data with their community The Healthy School Report Card is the ideal tool to help you meet required guidelines identify and prioritize improvements and garner the support of policymakers family members and the community NAEP 1998 Reading Report Card for the Nation ,1999 The Writing Report Card, 1984-88 Arthur N. Applebee, 1990 Based on two national assessments of the writing proficiency of representative samples of students in grades 4 8 and 11 conducted during the school years ending in 1984 and 1988 this report assesses the informative persuasive and imaginative writing performance of the nation s students and tracks changes in performance over time The first three chapters of the report describe student performance on the informative persuasive and imaginative writing tasks included in the writing trend assessments based on the results of the primary trait and holistic analyses The fourth chapter summarizes trends in average task accomplishment for the nation and various demographic subpopulations In the fifth chapter trends in students grammar punctuation and spelling are discussed The sixth chapter discusses factors that appear to be related to writing performance such as students instructional experiences and home environment The report concludes that despite some progress on some tasks students writing performance across tasks remains low and has changed little across time The report also finds that the extent to which students at all grade levels value writing use it in their own lives and engage in writing process activities remains quite limited A procedural appendix and an appendix of data are attached RS NAEP ...
