Seventeen Syllables And Other Stories:

Seventeen Syllables and Other Stories Hisaye Yamamoto, 1988 In addition to the contents of the original volume this edition brings back into print the following works Death Rides the Rails to Poston Eucalyptus A Fire in Fontana Florentine Gardens Seventeen syllables and other stories King-Kok Cheung, 1988 Seventeen Syllables Hisaye Yamamoto, 1994 Hisaye Yamamoto's often reprinted tale of a naive American daughter and her Japanese mother captures the essence the cultural and generational conflicts so common among immigrants and their American born children On the surface Seventeen Syllables is the story of Rosie and her preoccupation with adolescent life Between the lines however lurks the tragedy of her mother who is trapped in a marriage of desperation Tome's deep absorption in writing haiku causes a rift with her husband which escalates to a tragic event that changes Rosie's life forever Yamamoto's disarming style matches the verbal economy of haiku in which all meaning is contained within seventeen syllables Her deft characterizations and her delineations of sexuality create a haunting story of a young girl's transformation from innocence to adulthood This casebook includes an introduction and an essay by the editor an interview with the author a chronology authoritative texts of Seventeen Syllables 1949 and Yoneko's Earthquake 1951 critical essays and a bibliography The contributors are Charles L Crow Donald C Goellnicht Elaine H Kim Dorothy Ritsuko McDonald Zenobia Baxter Mistri Katharine Newman Robert M Payne Robert T Rolf and Stan Yogi The Columbia Guide to Asian American Literature Since 1945 Guiyou Huang, 2006-08-08 The Columbia Guide to Asian American Literature Since 1945 Words Matter King-Kok Cheung, 2000-02-01 In this age of rapid transition Asian American studies and American studies in general are being reconfigured to reflect global migrations and the diverse populations of the United States Asian American literature in particular has embodied the crisis of identity that is at the heart of larger academic and political debates surrounding diversity and the inclusion and exclusion of immigrant and refugee groups These issues underlie the very principles on which literature culture and art are produced preserved taught and critiqued Words Matter is the first collection of interviews with 20th century Asian American writers The conversations that have been gathered here interviews with twenty writers possessing unique backgrounds perspectives thematic concerns and artistic priorities effectively dispel any easy categorizations of people of Asian descent These writers comment on their own work and speak frankly about aesthetics politics and the challenges they have encountered in pursuing a writing career They address among other issues the expectations attached to the label Asian American the burden of representation shouldered by ethnic artists and the different demands of mainstream and ethnic audiences Encyclopedia of the American Short Story Abby H. P. Werlock, 2015-04-22 Two volume set that presents an introduction to American short fiction from the 19th century to the present

Encyclopedia of Feminist Literature Kathy J. Whitson, 2004-12-30 Many women writers have secured a solid place in the literary canon while others have remained marginalized This reference includes alphabetically arranged entries on roughly

70 women writers whose works are widely read in English and on some 20 related topics While some of the writers profiled are widely known others have not yet received as much attention And while most of the writers are from England and America the volume also profiles Chilean Brazilian Indian South African Australian French and German authors The writers selected are feminist in that their works have challenged traditional gender roles explored female oppression or critiqued patriarchal social structures In addition to providing biographical information the entries include interpretative summaries of major works Each author entry includes biographical information an extensive summary treatment of at least one of her works an list of her other major works cross references to related entries and a list of works for further reading What distinguishes this encyclopedia from the many other volumes addressing feminist literature or literature by women is the interpretative summary in each entry The volume closes with a list of works cited Entries are clearly written and are accessible to high school students and undergraduates

The Columbia Companion to the Twentieth-Century American Short Story Blanche H. The Ruptures of American Capital Grace Kyungwon Hong, Universality is a dangerous concept according to Grace Kyungwon Hong one that has contributed to the rise of the U S nation state that privileges the propertied individual However African American Asian American and Chicano people experience the same stretch of city sidewalk with varying degrees of safety visibility and surveillance The Ruptures of American Capital examines two key social formations women of color feminism and racialized immigrant women s culture in order to argue that race and gender are contradictions within the history of U S capital that should be understood not as monolithic but as marked by its crises Hong shows how women of color feminism identified ways in which nationalist forms of capital such as the right to own property were repressive The Ruptures of American Capital demonstrates that racialized immigrant women s culture has brought to light contested modes of incorporation into consumer culture Interweaving discussion of U S political economy with literary analyses including readings from Booker T Washington to Jessica Hagedorn Hong challenges the individualism of the United States and the fetishization of difference that is one of the markers of globalization Grace Kyungwon Hong is assistant professor of English and Asian American studies at the University of Wisconsin Madison

Reading the Literatures of Asian America Shirley Lim, Amy Ling, 1992 A unique collection of essays explores the diversity of Asian American literature from the 19th century to the present The

Cambridge Guide to Women's Writing in English Lorna Sage, 1999-09-30 This Guide aims to consolidate and epitomise the re-reading of women's writing that has gone on in the last twenty five years This is an opportunity for stock taking a timely project when so much writing has been rediscovered reclaimed and republished There are entries on writers on individual texts and on general terms genres and movements all printed in a single alphabetical sequence The earliest written documents in medieval English the visionary writings of Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe are covered in an historical and geographical sweep that takes us up to the present day The book reflects the spread of literacy the history of colonisation and the development of post colonial cultures using and changing the English language The entries are written by contributors from all the countries covered The result is a work of reference with a unique feeling for the vitality wealth and diversity of women's writing

American Literature in Transition, 1940-1950 Christopher Vials, 2017-12-28 In the aftermath of World War II the United States emerged as the dominant imperial power and in US popular memory the Second World War is remembered more vividly than the American Revolution American Literature in Transition 1940 1950 provides crucial contexts for interpreting the literature of this period Essays from scholars in literature history art history ethnic studies and American studies show how writers intervened in the global struggles of the decade the Second World War the Cold War and emerging movements over racial justice gender and sexuality labor and de colonization One recurrent motif is the centrality of the political impulse in art and culture Artists and writers participated widely in left and liberal social movements that fundamentally transformed the terms of social life in the twentieth century not by advocating specific legislation but by changing underlying cultural values This book addresses all the political impulses fueling art and literature at the time as well as the development of new forms and media from modernism and noir to radio and the paperback

Filthy Fictions Monica Chiu, 2004-01-20 Filthy Fictions addresses Asian American literature by women to explore and explode the sedimented and solidified meanings we have created about Asian Americans and dirt through dialogues that not only cross disciplinary and institutional formations and borders but also question the very borders and territories upon which these arguments may be founded Expertly questioning the construction of the ethnic body the book discusses critical discourses in ethnic and feminist studies around the topic of identity re production and transnational representation

Strange Fruit of the Black Pacific Vince Schleitwiler, 2017-01-24 Set between the rise of the U S and Japan as Pacific imperial powers in the 1890s and the aftermath of the latter's defeat in World War II Strange Fruit of the Black Pacific traces the interrelated migrations of African Americans Japanese Americans and Filipinos across U S domains Offering readings in literature blues and jazz culture film theatre journalism and private correspondence Vince Schleitwiler considers how the collective yearnings and speculative destinies of these groups were bound together along what W E B Du Bois called the world belting color line The links were forged by the paradoxical practices of race making in an aspiring empire benevolent uplift through tutelage alongside overwhelming sexualized violence which together comprise what Schleitwiler calls imperialism's racial justice This process could only be sustained through an ongoing training of perception in an aesthetics of racial terror through rituals of racial and colonial violence that also provide the conditions for an elusive countertraining With an innovative prose style Strange Fruit of the Black Pacific pursues the poetic and ethical challenge of reading or learning how to read the black and Asian literatures that take form and flight within the fissures of imperialism's racial justice Through startling reinterpretations of such canonical writers as James Weldon Johnson Nella Larsen Toshio Mori and Carlos Bulosan alongside considerations of unexpected figures such as the musician Robert Johnson and the playwright Eulalie Spence Schleitwiler seeks to reactivate the radical potential of the Afro Asian imagination through graceful meditations on its representations of failure loss and overwhelming violence
