Often it is easy to ignore the needs of the people around us But what would God want us to do In His ministry here on earth Jesus reached out to the most hurt most abused and most reviled members of His community He healed not only their bodies but their spirits Should we do any less The Seventh day Adventist Church has a unique opportunity to serve the hurting in their community through a Home Based Care ministry With our mission to love serve and teach and with the numerous church resources already available we can do what many others cannot be the safe haven of health and healing that God intends His church to be While this book focuses on ministry to individuals and their families dealing with HIV and AIDS the principles found here can be applied to anyone with a terminal illness who finds himself herself on the other side of accepted society It shows us that instead of being critical we should accept where people and their choices have led them doing our best to minister with the love and care of Jesus Counsels on Sabbath School Work Ellen Gould Harmon White, 2002

The Elephant in the Room Sadrail Saint-Ulysse PhD MDiv, 2022-04-12 I write this book to do something that most would consider unwise as a current employee of the Seventh day Adventist Church I call or appeal for systematic change change in policies that have kept the financial support from tithe and other sources to Adventist elementary and other sources to Adventist schools at minimal Please don't think of me as a brave one who dares to go where many have not gone before I am not I speak out because we need policy changes at every level Fairness is not giving everyone the same thing but to give each person what he or she needs to succeed Many businesses are rethinking how to move forward post the pandemic We too as a church need to do the same In the Old Testament God instructed his people to pass on their faith to their children by intentionally teaching them God's statutes and commandments Deuteronomy 6 4 8 and Isaiah 54 13 Similarly the Christian Church receives its marching orders from Jesus in the Great Commission found in Matthew 28 16 20 Jesus directs the church to make disciples of all nations by baptizing and teaching Church schools are needed to partner with parents and the church as a whole to educate children Ellen G White cofounder of the Seventh day Adventist Church who earlier encouraged the
