Living Among Friends Christian Lambrecht, 2014-10-31 The kids have moved away What do we do now Thousands of Baby Boomers have asked themselves the same question They've looked for alternative homes but nothing affordable seems quite right Should you move closer to your grown children Should you stay put Rent vs own Move to the mountains or perhaps the beach How about moving to a smaller town The good news is that Boomers will most likely live longer than their parents If you are sixty five you have a twenty five percent chance of living past ninety The bad news is that most of us have not prepared to live that long So what are we to do Regardless of your situation you do have alternatives Let's make the most of the final one third of our lives Step back relax and take a journey with me as we explore housing alternatives some of which I'll bet you have not considered

How We Live Now Bella DePaulo, 2015-08-25 A close up examination and exploration How We Live Now challenges our old concepts of what it means to be a family and have a home opening the door to the many diverse and thriving experiments of living in today's America Across America and around the world in cities and suburbs and small towns people from all walks of life are redefining our lifespaces the way we live and who we live with The traditional nuclear family in their single family home on a suburban lot has lost its place of prominence in contemporary life Today Americans have more choices than ever before in creating new ways to live and meet their personal needs and desires Social scientist researcher and writer Bella DePaulo has traveled across America to interview people experimenting with the paradigm of how we live In How We Live Now she explores everything from multi generational homes to cohousing communities where one's family is made up of friends and neighbors to couples living apart together to single living and ultimately uncovers a pioneering landscape for living that throws the old blueprint out the window Through personal interviews and stories media accounts and in depth research How We Live Now explores thriving lifespaces and offers the reader choices that are freer more diverse and more attuned to our modern needs for the twenty first century and beyond

Living Sustainably A. Whitney Sanford, 2017-06-16 In light of concerns about food and human health fraying social ties economic uncertainty and rampant consumerism some people are foregoing a hurried distracted existence and embracing a mindful way of living Intentional residential communities across the United States are seeking the freedom to craft their own societies and live based on the values of nonviolence self sufficiency equality and voluntary simplicity In Living Sustainably A Whitney Sanford reveals the solutions that such communities have devised for sustainable living while highlighting the specific choices and adaptations that they have made to accommodate local context and geography She examines their methods of reviving and adapting traditional agrarian skills testing alternate building materials for their homes and developing local governments that balance group needs and individual autonomy Living Sustainably is a teachable testament to the idea that new cultures based on justice and sustainability are attainable in many ways Sanford's engaging work
