Subject Catalog University of California, Berkeley. Institute of Governmental Studies, 1970 Subject Catalog of the Institute of Governmental Studies Library, University of California, Berkeley University of California, Berkeley. Institute of Governmental Studies. Library, 1971 Incapacitation Franklin E. Zimring, 1997 The one sure way that imprisonment prevents crime is by restraining offenders from committing crimes while they are locked up Called incapacitation by experts in criminology this effect has become the dominant justification for imprisonment in the United States where well over a million persons are currently in jails and prisons and public figures who want to appear tough on crime periodically urge that we throw away the key How useful is the modern prison in restraining crime and at what cost How much do we really know about incapacitation and its effectiveness This book is the first comprehensive assessment of incapacitation Zimring and Hawkins show the increasing reliance on restraint to justify imprisonment analyze the existing theories on incapacitation s effects assess the current empirical research report a new study and explore the links between what is known about incapacitation and what it tells us about our criminal justice policy An insightful evaluation of a pressing policy issue Incapacitation is a vital contribution to the current debates on our criminal justice system Comparative Criminal Justice Francis Pakes, 2017-08-16 This book offers an accessible introduction to comparative criminal justice and examines and reflects on the ways different countries and jurisdictions deal with the main stages in the criminal justice process from policing to sentencing This popular bestseller has been fully updated and expanded for the third edition This textbook provides the reader with a comparative perspective on criminal justice and its main components a knowledge of methodology for comparative research and analysis an understanding of the emerging concepts in comparative criminal justice such as security surveillance retribution and rehabilitation a discussion of global trends such as the global drop in crime the punitive turn penal populism privatization international policing and international criminal tribunals The new edition has been fully updated to keep abreast with this growing field of study and research including increased coverage of the challenge of globalization and its role and influence on criminal justice systems around the world Topics such as state crime genocide and the international criminal court have also grown in prominence since the publication of the last edition and are given increased coverage This book will be perfect reading for advanced undergraduates and postgraduates taking courses in comparative criminal justice and those who are engaged in the study of global responses to crime New features such as lists of further reading study questions and boxed case studies help bring comparative criminal justice alive for students and instructors alike Race and Crime Shaun L. Gabbidon, Helen Taylor Greene, 2024-08-16 Written by two of the most prominent criminologists in the field Race and Crime 6th Edition takes an incisive look at the intersection of race and ethnicity and the criminal justice system A thought provoking discussion of contemporary issues uniquely balances the historical context and modern data and research to offer students a panoramic perspective on race and crime Accessible and reader friendly this comprehensive text shows students how race and ethnicity have mattered and continue to matter in all aspects of the administration of justice An Introduction to Criminological Theory Roger Hopkins Burke, 2025-01-28 This book provides a comprehensive and up to date introduction to criminological theory for students taking courses in criminology at both undergraduate and postgraduate level Building on previous editions and the previous companion text this book presents the latest research and theoretical developments in a socio political context All major theoretical perspectives are considered including classical criminology biological and psychological positivism labelling theories feminist criminology critical criminology and left realism situation action theories desistance theories social control theories the risk society postmodern condition and terrorism The new edition has been updated and revised over seven parts to include full chapters on key topics such as Bourdieu and criminology narrative criminology cultural victimology southern theory and criminology green and species criminology critical race theory convict and abolitionist and convict criminologies and ultra realist criminology These key issues are discussed in the context of debates about the fragmentation of modernity and the postmodern condition the rise of political populism risk surveillance and social control conspiracy theories post truth society and speculation about living in post COVID 19 society and the future of neoliberalism Supplemented with chapter summaries critical thinking questions policy implications a full glossary of terms and theories and a timeline of criminological theory this book will appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students of criminology sociology and politics and is essential reading for advanced students of criminology looking for a way to engage with contemporary themes and concepts in theory

Crime and Society, 1990 Children and Cross-Examination J R Spencer, Michael Lamb, 2012-06-01 In 2009 Stephen Barker was convicted of rape on the evidence of a little girl who was four and a half years old at the trial and about three and a half when first interviewed by the police The high point of the proceedings was the child s appearance as a live witness in order for Barker s counsel to attempt a cross examination This case focused attention on the need imposed by current English law for even tiny children to come to court for a live cross examination In 1989 the Pigot Committee proposed a scheme under which the whole of a young child s evidence including cross examination would be obtained out of court and in advance of trial In 1999 a provision designed to give effect to this was included in the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act but it has not yet been brought into force The full Pigot proposal was implemented however in Western Australia and similar schemes operate in a number of European jurisdictions This book of essays examines a number of these schemes and argues the case for further reforms in the UK The Oxford Handbook of Crime and Public Policy Michael H. Tonry, 2011 This handbook offers a comprehensive examination of crimes as public policy subjects to provide an authoritative overview of current knowledge about the nature scale and effects of diverse forms of criminal behaviour and of efforts to prevent and control them Index of Conference Proceedings, 1995
