In poetry, repeated use of questions creates a dramatic effect. The effect is stronger when the poem also answers the question/s. Read the following two poems to see this technique used.

The Blackbird of Belfast Lough

What little throat
Has framed that note?
What gold beak shot
It far away?
A blackbird on
His leafy throne
Tossed it alone
Across the bay.

A traditional Irish poem (AD 800)

What are heavy?

What are heavy? Sea-sand and sorrow;
What are brief? Today and tomorrow;
What are frail? Spring blossoms and youth;
What are deep? The ocean and truth.

Christina Rossetti (1830-94)

Discuss with your partner. Which of the two poems do you prefer? Why?

Creating questions – create a question to generate the following statements.

Example:

The cows moo. → What do cows do?

1. The grass is green.
2. My book is long.
3. The birds are singing.
4. My coat is hanging up.

A Poetry Pedagogy for Teachers Maya Pindyck, Ruth Vinz, Diana Liu, Ashlynn Wittchow, 2022-08-25 A Poetry Pedagogy for Teachers generates imaginative encounters with poetry and invites educators to practice a range of poetry exercises in order to inform instructional approaches to reading and writing. Guided by pedagogical principles prompted by their readings of Wallace Stevens' Thirteen Ways of Looking at a Blackbird, Maya Pindyck and Ruth Vinz provide critical discussion of prominent literacy practices in secondary classrooms and offer alternative approaches to encountering a text. They do this by way of experimental readings of Wallace Stevens' poem toward a set of thirteen pedagogical principles that anchor a pedagogy of poetic practices. The book also offers invitational exercises, the authors' own engagements with poetry practices as well as student examples, visual modes of theorizing, and a gathering of relevant resources compiled by two classroom teachers. This is a book for secondary English teachers, teaching artists, English educators, college writing professors, readers and writers of poetry, both existing and aspirational, and any educator interested in poetry's capacities to pedagogically inform their subject matter and/or literacy practices.

GCSE English for AQA B John Law, David Stone, 2002 Matching the AQA B specification, this text aims to help students develop the skills needed for the AQA B GCSE English exam. It includes exam practice questions with guidance on how to answer them.

Exploring Creativity Through Writing Alan Maley, Sharoon Sunny, 2025-08-01 The book explores the nature of human creativity and its importance in education with reference to past and ongoing work on creativity theory. It aims to direct the attention of teachers to the need for creativity in education by dispelling the mystique surrounding it and the feelings of inadequacy or apprehension it may evoke in educators, particularly in the Asia region. The book offers an introduction to creativity in writing, the rationale for including it in language programmes, the benefits it can bestow, and the results it can produce, as well as dealing with common objections to it. It divides creative writing into two major sections: poetry and stories, followed by a copious set of varied classroom activities. For each activity, a standard format is adopted to offer teachers maximum support in implementing the procedures, including supplementary comments on each activity. It is distinct for its accessibility and clarity, its abundance of practical and ready-to-use classroom activities, and its unique combination of theoretical underpinnings and practical implementation. This book will be useful to students, pre-service teachers, and researchers who are new to the teaching of English Language, both in the Asian context and in the wider world. It will also be an essential companion to practicing in-service teachers and Teacher Trainers to further sharpen their concepts and skills.
