

JANUARY ... DOES IT BRING YOU JOY?

- 1 January is the time for renewal on many fronts. It's the time of the year to re-evaluate everything. If something or someone doesn't bring you joy, it's pretty pointless carrying on with it. If we want the best, we must do our best. We must keep our family space safe and secure so that we are thriving as a people and as a nation. 5
- 2 In order to live their best lives, people are spreading themselves thinner and thinner with multiple streams of income. In the process we earn more but live less, we lose our focus of what is important.
- 3 With social media, keeping up with other Instagrammers are having a devastating effect on self-perception. Everything appears to be real perfect, but the fabric of our society is frazzled. Use January to take stock and start navigating new ways of doing things. Instead of multiple streams of sole sessions, travel more, and connect with people and places that bring you joy. 10

Beyond Post-Traumatic Stress Jean

Scandlyn,2017-07-05 When soldiers at Fort Carson were charged with a series of 14 murders PTSD and other invisible wounds of war were thrown into the national spotlight With these events as their starting point Jean Scandlyn and Sarah Hautzinger argue for a new approach to combat stress and trauma seeing them not just as individual medical pathologies but as fundamentally collective cultural phenomena Their deep ethnographic research including unusual access to affected soldiers at Fort Carson also engaged an extended labyrinth of friends family communities military culture social services bureaucracies the media and many other layers of society Through this profound and moving book they insist that invisible combat injuries are a social challenge demanding collective reconciliation with the post 9 11 wars Regimes of Value in

Tourism Emilie Crossley,David Picard,2017-10-02 Drawing from ethnographic work in five continents this book demonstrates how different regimes of value in tourism can coexist collide and compete across a varied geographic terrain Much theory in tourism economics defines value as a measure of monetary worth a concept governing commodity exchange and a gauge for tourist satisfaction The research included in this volume shows that tourism not only feeds off existing conceptions of value as a monetary category but that it is also instrumental in reproducing and reinforcing those subjective morally heightened and highly intangible values that make tourism and the tourism economy a complex social cultural political and psychological phenomenon The book pushes the debate about the tourism economy beyond a simplistic understanding of producer consumer relations instead suggesting a refocus on the social spatial and temporal lags in tourism production and the ensuing differentiated regimes of values This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Tourism and Cultural Change Education, Privatisation and Social Justice Ian Macpherson,Susan Robertson,Geoffrey Walford,2014-05-12

The involvement of private actors in education is not new yet in the last decade critical issues have arisen that demand close scrutiny This volume explores emerging forms of the private through case studies from Africa South Asia and South East Asia and makes three related observations First what is new about these manifestations is their scale scope and penetration into almost all aspects of the education endeavour from the administrative apparatus to policymaking and from formal provision in education settings to out of school activities such as private tutoring Second what is particularly controversial about these developments is how education itself is being recast as a sector it is increasingly being opened up to profit making and trade and to agenda setting by private commercial interests Third the learner is increasingly conceptualised as a consumer and education a consumer good The case studies therefore enable us to see more clearly how different forms of the private in education alter what is at stake for whom and with what outcomes and the consequences for individuals and societies In turn these raise the very important question about what they mean for our conceptualisations of education learning and teaching on the one hand and for education as a site and means for emancipation on the other These are profound social justice concerns and ones that make this volume distinctive This book sets out to address these hard but urgent questions and will be of interest to academics and students of education education researchers government personnel and policymakers
