Inside the Hotel Rwanda Edouard Kayihura, Kerry Zukus, 2014-04-01 In 2004 the Academy Award nominated movie Hotel Rwanda lionized hotel manager Paul Rusesabagina for single handedly saving the lives of all who sought refuge in the Hotel des Milles Collines during Rwanda's genocide against the Tutsi in 1994 Because of the film the real life Rusesabagina has been compared to Oskar Schindler but unbeknownst to the public the hotel's refugees don't endorse Rusesabagina's version of the events In the wake of Hotel Rwanda's international success Rusesabagina is one of the most well known Rwandans and now the smiling face of the very Hutu Power groups who drove the genocide He is accused by the Rwandan prosecutor general of being a genocide negationist and funding the terrorist group Democratic Forces for the Liberation of Rwanda FDLR In Inside the Hotel Rwanda survivor Edouard Kayihura tells his own personal story of what life was really like during those harrowing 100 days within the walls of that infamous hotel and offers the testimonies of others who survived there from Hutu and Tutsi to UN peacekeepers Kayihura tells of his life in a divided society and his journey to the place he believed would be safe from slaughter Inside the Hotel Rwanda exposes Paul Rusesabagina as a profiteering politically ambitious Hutu Power sympathizer who extorted money from those who sought refuge threatening to send those who did not pay to the genocidaires despite pleas from the hotel's corporate ownership to stop Inside the Hotel Rwanda is at once a memoir a critical deconstruction of a heralded Hollywood movie alleged to be factual and a political analysis aimed at exposing a falsely created hero using his fame to be a political force spouting the same ethnic apartheid that caused the genocide two decades ago

The Animal Catalyst Patricia MacCormack, 2014-06-19 The Animal Catalyst deals with the question of what is an animal and also in some instances what is a human It pushes critical animal studies in important new directions it re examines basic assumptions suggests new paradigms for how we can live and function ecologically in a world that is not simply ours It argues that it is not enough to recognise the ethical demands placed upon us by our encounters with animals or to critique our often murderous treatment of them this simply reinforces human exceptionalism Featuring contributions from leading academics lawyers artists and activists the book examines key issues such as How compassion for animals reinforces ideas of what distinguishes human beings from other animals How speciesism and human centrality are built into the legal system How individualist subjectivity works in relation to animals who may not think of themselves in the same way How any consideration of animal others must involve a radical deconstruction of our very notion of the human How art philosophy and literature can both avoid speciesism and deliver the human from subjectivity This volume is a unique project which stands at the cutting edge of both animal rights philosophies and posthuman artistic abstract philosophies of identity It will be of great interest to undergraduates and researchers in philosophy ethics particularly continental philosophy critical theory and cultural studies
