Edward Glenny, Darian Lockett, 2023-01-12 Contributors to this volume examine the various collections of canonical sub units in the canon considering the state of the question regarding each particular collection The chapters introduce the issues involved in sub collections being accepted in the canon summarize the historical evidence of the acceptance of these collections and discuss the compositional evidence of canonical consciousness in the various collections The contributors consider paratextual evidence for example the arrangement of the books in various manuscripts the titles of the books and also include evidence such as the presence of catchwords framing devices and themes The book begins with a consideration of the two overarching collections the Old and New Testaments Next several sub collections within the Hebrew Bible OT are considered including the Torah Prophets the Megilloth the Twelve both in their Masoretic Text and Septuagint forms and the Psalter In addition sub collections in the New Testament include the four fold Gospel the Pauline Collection usually with Hebrews in the early manuscripts the function of Acts within the New Testament the Praxapostolos Acts along with the Catholic Epistles and the function of Revelation as the end of the canon Postmodern Reading of Contemporary East African Fiction Andrew Nyongesa, 2024-02-29 This book likens writers incessant focus on racism negative ethnicity patriarchy and social stratification in societies to a naive physician who
