

The background of the entire cover is a vibrant space scene. The upper portion is filled with a deep blue nebula, its wispy clouds glowing with lighter shades of blue and white. Below this, the dark, star-studded void of space leads to the curved horizon of the Earth. The planet's surface is visible, showing a mix of dark landmasses and bright, glowing city lights that trace the coastline and spread across the continents. The overall effect is one of vastness and cosmic scale.
