Quite A Good Time To Be Born A Memoir 1935 1975:

Quite a Good Time to be Born David Lodge, 2015 I drew my first breath on the 28th of January 1935 which was quite a good time for a future writer to be born in England The only child in a lower middle class London family who got his artistic genes from his musician father and his Catholic faith from his Irish Belgian mother David Lodge was four when World War II began and grew to maturity through decades of great social and cultural change giving him plenty to write about in his distinguished career In this memoir of his life up to the publication of his breakthrough book Changing Places David looks back over his childhood and youth including his undergraduate years at University College London where he met Mary his future wife in freshers week After National Service and two years postgraduate research married at last and soon a father he struggles to make a start as both novelist and academic until a lucky break brings him a job at the University of Birmingham and a stimulating friendship with a colleague of similar ambition Malcolm Bradbury A promising career anchored on a happy marriage opens up full of opportunities for travel enjoyment of exciting new trends and interesting new friends but also intertwined with unexpected setbacks and challenges both professional and personal Candid witty and insightful illuminating both the author and his work Quite a Good Time to be Born gives a fascinating picture of a period of transition in British society and the evolution of a writer who has become a classic in his own lifetime Quite a Good Time to Be Born David Lodge, 2015-01-11 In this memoir of his life David Lodge looks back over his childhood and youth including his undergraduate years at University College London After National Service and two years postgraduate research married at last and soon a father he struggles to make a start as both novelist and academic Candid witty and insightful Quite a Good Time to be Born gives a fascinating picture of the evolution of a writer who has become a classic in his own lifetime The Photographer as Autobiographer Arnaud Schmitt, 2022-09-10 This book explores hybrid memoirs combining text and images authored by photographers It contextualizes this sub category of life writing from a historical perspective within the overall context of life writing before taking a structural and cognitive approach to the text image relationship While autobiographers use photographs primarily for their illustrative or referential function photographers have a much more complex interaction with pictures in their autobiographical accounts This book explores how the visual aspect of a memoir may drastically alter the reader's response to the work but also how in other cases the visual parts seem disconnected from the text or underused

The Schism of '68 Alana Harris, 2018-03-02 This volume explores the critical reactions and dissenting activism generated in the summer of 1968 when Pope Paul VI promulgated his much anticipated and hugely divisive encyclical Humanae Vitae which banned the use of artificial contraception by Catholics Through comparative case studies of fourteen different European countries it offers a wealth of new data about the lived religious beliefs and practices of ordinary people as well as theologians interrogating traditional teachings in areas relating to love marriage family life gender roles and marital intimacy Key themes include the role of medical experts the media the strategies of progressive Catholic clergy and laity and the critical part played by hugely differing Church State relations In demonstrating the Catholic Church's important and overlooked contribution to the refashioning of the sexual landscape of post war Europe it makes a critical intervention into a growing historiography exploring the 1960s and offers a close interrogation of one strand of religious change in this tumultuous decade The Oxford History of British and Irish Catholicism, Volume V Alana Harris, 2023-09-01 The fifth

Seamus Heaney and Society Rosie Lavan,Rosamund Lavan,2020 In the course of Seamus Heaney s career he assumed roles across education journalism and broadcasting as well as poetry Seamus Heaney and Society presents a comprehensive and dynamic new engagement with one of the most celebrated poets of the modern period appreciating how his work as a poet was shaped by his work as a teacher lecturer critic and public figure Seamus Heaney and Society draws on a range of archival material in order to revive the network of associations within which Heaney s work was written published and circulated Mindful of the various spheres of his career it assesses his achievements and status in Ireland Britain and the United States through newspapers magazines radio and television programmes and manuscript drafts of key writings now held in the National Library of Ireland Through asserting the significance of the cultural institutional and historical circumstances of Heaney s writing life it offers a re examination of the writer in public the social lives of the work of art and the questions of obligations and responsibility which Heaney confronted throughout his career Throughout Seamus Heaney and Society addresses the nature and singularity of poetry and the ways in which these qualities are asserted challenged and sustained in Heaney s work It demonstrates that despite the cultural standing and the scholarship that already surrounds his writing there is still a great deal to learn about and to learn from Seamus Heaney

Cultural Studies 50 Years On Kieran Connell,Matthew

Hilton,2016-09-30 Stuart Hall conceptualized his time at the Centre for Contemporary Cultural Studies as a series of interruptions It was this fluidity that gave rise to Hall s conception of cultural studies as a moving target a fusion of a range of disciplinary approaches that was uniquely influenced by politics in the world beyond the academy The political commitments of those at the Centre were wide ranging and from its embrace of collective ways of research and decision making to its deployment of various strands of European Marxist theory had a critical impact on the Centre s working practices Yet as the diverse work of many of these same scholars has shown the political climate of the present day is almost unrecognizable from that of the mid 1960s to the mid 1980s arguably the most productive period in the Centre's history Cultural Studies 50 Years On explores how the political social and cultural contexts of the early 21st century influenced the object and method of doing cultural studies In bringing together a historical reassessment of the Centre with present day questions regarding the future of the field the aim is not to reduce cultural studies to the work of a single now defunct institution Instead it aims to utilize what is a critical moment in the trajectory of the field in order to take stock of where it has come from and to explore where it might be going
