In Pursuit of Beauty Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1986 This project is the first comprehensive study of a phenomenon that not only dominated the American arts of the 1870s and 1880s but also helped set the course of such later developments in the United States as the Arts and Crafts movement, the indigenous interpretation of Art Nouveau, and even the rise of modernism. In fact, the early history of the Metropolitan, its founding, its sponsorship of a school of industrial design, and its display of decorative works is inextricably tied to the Aesthetic movement and its educational goals. In Pursuit of Beauty Americans and the Aesthetic Movement comprised some 175 objects including furniture, metalwork, stained glass, ceramics, textiles, wallpaper, painting, and sculpture. Some of these had rarely been displayed; others, although familiar, were being shown in new and even startling contexts. The exhibition and catalogue are arranged thematically to illustrate both the major styles of a visually rich movement and the ideas that generated its diversity. From publisher's description.

Making Miss India Miss World Susan Dewey, 2008-04-07 For almost half a century, the Miss India competition has been a prominent feature of Indian popular culture, influencing over time the conventional standard for female beauty. As India participates increasingly in a global economy, that standard is gradually being shaped by forces beyond the country's borders. Through the unexpected lens of the 2003 beauty pageant, Susan Dewey's Making Miss India Miss World examines what feminine beauty has come to mean in a country transformed by recent political, economic, and cultural developments.

"There She Is, Miss America" E. Watson, 2004-09-18 While some see the Miss American Pageant as a hokey vestige of another era, many remain enthralled by the annual Atlantic City event. And whether you love it or hate it, no one can deny the impact the contest has had on American popular culture; indeed, many reality television shows seem to have taken cues from the pageant. Founded in 1921, the Miss America Pageant has provided a fascinating glimpse into how American standards of femininity have been defined, projected, maintained, and challenged. At various times it has been praised as a positive role model for young American women, protested as degrading to women by feminists, and shamed by scandals such as the one caused by the Penthouse photos of Vanessa Williams in 1984. In this first interdisciplinary anthology to examine this uniquely American event, scholars defend, critique, and reflect on the pageant, grappling with themes like beauty, race, the body, identity, kitsch, and consumerism. There She Is, Miss America provides a fascinating examination of an enduring American icon.

Socratic Charis Lisa Atwood Wilkinson, 2013-01-01 This work offers an evaluation of Plato's portrayal of Socrates in relation to models of the ancient Greek agon, oral poetic performance and the practices of xenia. The author reinterprets the values of the oral tradition and xenia as non-agonistic and shows how these values can illuminate the dramatic and philosophical import of Plato's Socrates in ways potentially relevant to current thinking about demokratia. The Vietnamese Diaspora in a Transnational Context, 2022-02-14 The Vietnamese diaspora is now a truly global diaspora. This collection, one of the first of its kind, traces the Vietnamese diaspora's multifaceted roots in late 19th and early 20th century French colonialism, the end of the War in Vietnam, and economic migrations to fellow communist states in the 1970s and 1980s. Out of these migrations, Vietnamese communities have now formed in many of the major immigrant-receiving countries around the world. This collection traces the connection between the historically traumatic forms of dispersal from Vietnam and today's transnational Vietnamese communities. It considers questions about how conditions of exit from Vietnam shape Vietnamese diaspora identities and patterns of settlement and economic integration. It also addresses questions of how memory politics shape the ways in which various segments of the Vietnamese diaspora engage with contemporary Vietnam and shape what is now an intergenerational diaspora. Contributors are Tamsin Barber, Gisele Bousquet, Tuan Hoang, Gertrude H. Welmeier, C. N. Le, Nathalie Huynh Chau, Nguyen Vic, Satzewich, Ivan Small, Grażyna Szymańska, Matusiewicz, and Anna Vu.
