|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Act 1, Question 1: Why did Abigail drink the chicken's blood?                          | Abigail drank the chicken blood as a charm to kill Elizabeth Proctor because she is envious of Elizabeth and desires John Proctor.                                                                                                                                    |
| Act 1, Question 2: What's wrong with Betty?                                            | Betty is suffering from a psychological illness, which comes from her fear of being punished for dancing in the woods with the other girls. The town is saying witchcraft may be the reason Betty remains in her bed.                                                 |
| Act 1, Question 3: Why does the town believe Betty is really a witch?                  | The Puritans did believe that someone who has been bewitched would be unable to bear hearing the Lord's name. Therefore, when Betty, prone upon her bed, screams as the village sings a hymn below, almost everyone interprets it as proof that she's been bewitched. |
| Act 1, Question 4: Does a doctor come to determine if Betty is bewitched or not?       | I can infer that the doctor comes and diagnoses Betty as bewitched.                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Act 1, Question 5: Is Betty pretending to be bewitched or is she really sick?          | I can infer that Betty is pretending to be bewitched so she can accuse others of witchcraft. Betty was with the group of girls in the woods that was just "dancing", so she can use her knowledge against the girls she wants to accuse.                              |
| Act 2, Question 1: Why is Abigail trying to get rid of Goody Proctor?                  | Goody Proctor is accused of witchcraft by Abigail Williams because Abigail wants to marry Elizabeth's husband, John. John had an affair with Abigail while she served in the Proctor household.                                                                       |
| Act 2, Question 2: Why did the young girl lie about seeing her neighbor in her window? | I can infer that the young girl lied about seeing her neighbor through her window because her parents told her too. The young girl's parents probably told her to lie so they                                                                                         |
