A green LCD TV Controller Driver Board is visible, featuring various electronic components like capacitors, resistors, and integrated circuits. A large black chip with the 'aico' logo is prominent on the right side of the board. Several flat ribbon cables are connected to the board, including a white one and a blue-and-white striped one. To the left, a silver screwdriver is positioned near the board. In the bottom right corner, there are gold-colored coaxial connectors, one of which is connected to an orange cable.
