Progress Note

Prepared by: Kay B. Whittemore, Bright Futures Consulting

Date: Jan 21, 2051

Introduction

The following progress note provides a meticulous documentation and detailed observation of healthcare changes, daily caregiving tasks, and age-related activities conducted for elderly individuals. The purpose of this note is to offer valid and significant information about the progress made, not just in terms of executing care plans but also in improving their quality of life and overall well-being. This progress note aims to describe the growth, challenges, achievements, and changes for each individual in our care.

Daily Care

We ensure day-to-day care for our patients, keeping a close eye on their physical, emotional, and mental health. The daily care includes monitoring their sleeping routine, eating habit, medical needs, and recreational activities. All tasks are carried out

Twenty informative appendices are also included that clarify issues such as Medicare coverage, community and clinical living arrangements, client centered practice, exercise programs, evidence based practice, and a summary of the newly adopted Occupational Therapy Practice Framework Domain and Process. Additional features include information about the most advanced scientific achievements that can ultimately affect occupational therapy. Lists new and updated resource materials. Presents case studies that provide theoretical considerations and Intervention methods. Clearly discusses exciting and new venues for occupational therapy programming. Explains fundamentals of documentation and current reimbursement issues. Perfect for the student or clinician. Elder Care in Occupational Therapy Second Edition provides classic professional information on theory, disease entities, and intervention in a comprehensive format.

How to Start a Home-Based Senior Care Business James L. Ferry, 2015-03-03 Everything you need to know to start and run a profitable, ethical, and satisfying home based business in the field of senior care. This book covers the range of senior care businesses that are increasingly in demand. It discusses the businesses that can be set up by those with special qualifications such as nursing, social work, or other health and human services degrees, as well as those that can be run by individuals with no special training but an interest in caring for others. Topics included are driving and errand running businesses, geriatric or elder care management, day care, and insurance coverage advocacy. The senior population is increasing, and aging issues are everywhere; this is a timely book from an expert author that will help new business owners fill a growing market need.

Geriatric Practice Audrey Chun, 2019-10-29 This book serves as a comprehensive reference for the basic principles of caring for older adults, directly corresponding to the key competencies for medical students and residents. These competencies are covered in 10 sections, each with chapters that target the skills and knowledge necessary for achieving competency. Each of the 45 chapters follows a consistent format for ease of use, beginning with an introduction to the associated competency and concluding with the most salient points for mastery. Chapters also include brief cases to provide context to the clinical reasoning behind the competency, strengthening the core understanding necessary to physicians of the future. Written by expert educators and clinicians in geriatric medicine, Geriatric Practice is a key resource for students in geriatric medicine, family and internal medicine specialties, hospice, and nursing home training, and all clinicians studying to work with aging patients.
