Handbook on Moving Corrections and Sentencing Forward Pamela K. Lattimore, Beth M. Huebner, Faye S.

Taxman, 2020-11-10 This volume addresses major issues and research in corrections and sentencing with the goal of using previous research and findings as a platform for recommendations about future research evaluation and policy The last several decades witnessed major policy changes in sentencing and corrections in the United States as well as considerable research to identify the most effective strategies for addressing criminal behavior These efforts included changes in sentencing that eliminated parole and imposed draconian sentences for violent and drug crimes The federal government followed by most states implemented sentencing guidelines that greatly reduced the discretion of the courts to impose sentences The results were a multifold increase in the numbers of individuals in jails and prisons and on community supervision increases that have only recently crested There were also efforts to engage prosecutors and the courts in diversion and oversight including the development of prosecutorial diversion programs as well as a variety of specialty courts Penal reform has included efforts to understand the transitions from prison to the community including federal led efforts focused on reentry programming Community corrections reforms have ranged from increased surveillance through drug testing electronic monitoring and in some cases judicial oversight to rehabilitative efforts driven by risk and needs assessment More recently the focus has included pretrial reform to reduce the number of people held in jail pending trial efforts that have brought attention to the use of bail and its disproportionate impact on people of color and the poor This collection of chapters from leading researchers addresses a wide array of the latest research in the field A unique approach featuring responses to the original essays by active researchers spurs discussion and provides a foundation for developing directions for future research and policymaking Therapeutic Process and Well-Being in Forensic Psychiatry and Prison Manuela Dudeck, Jürgen Leo Müller, Birgit Angela Völm, Najat R. Khalifa, 2021-02-17 Evidence-based Strength Intervention in Multiple Contexts Wenjie Duan, Guannan Bai, Wanzhen Chen, Xiaoqing Tang, Chen Zheng, 2022-12-05

Street God Dimas Salaberrios, 2015 But in one terrifying moment with a gun pointed at his head Dimas had to decide How far would he go Was he finished taking reckless chances to rule as a god of the streets Would he dare to entrust his life to the real God an even riskier path Because that God would send Dimas back down the darkest streets he'd ever known on a rescue mission after those still in danger Corrections Mary K. Stohr, Anthony Walsh, 2021-01-10 Written by former practitioners who are experts in the field Corrections The Essentials Fourth Edition addresses the most important topics in corrections in a brief yet comprehensive format Authors Mary K Stohr and Anthony Walsh introduce students to the history and development of correctional institutions while offering a unique perspective on ethics and special populations The Fourth Edition provides insights into the future of corrections as well as updated coverage of the most important issues impacting the field today This title is accompanied by a complete teaching and learning package Mobilized by Injustice Hannah L. Walker, 2020-01-10 In Mobilized by Injustice Hannah L Walker excavates the power of criminal justice to inspire political action Mobilization results from the belief that one's experiences are a consequence of policies that target people like one's self on the basis of group affiliation like race ethnicity and class Walker offers a compelling account of the criminal justice system as a spark for the formation of a movement with the potential to remake American politics Documents of the Assembly of the State of New York New York (State). Legislature. Assembly, 1894 The City Record New York (N.Y.), 1920 Handbook of Automated Scoring Duanli Yan, André A. Rupp, Peter W. Foltz, 2020-02-26 Automated scoring engines require a careful balancing of the contributions of technology NLP psychometrics artificial intelligence and the learning sciences The present handbook is evidence that the theories methodologies and underlying technology that surround automated scoring have reached maturity and that there is a growing acceptance of these technologies among experts and the public From the Foreword by Alina von Davier ACTNext Senior Vice President Handbook of Automated Scoring Theory into Practice provides a scientifically grounded overview of the key research efforts required to move automated scoring systems into operational practice It examines the field of automated scoring from the viewpoint of related scientific fields serving as its foundation the latest developments of computational methodologies utilized in automated scoring and several large scale real world applications of automated scoring for complex learning and assessment systems The book is organized into three parts that cover 1 theoretical foundations 2 operational methodologies and 3 practical illustrations each with a commentary In addition the handbook includes an introduction and synthesis chapter as well as a cross chapter glossary Correctional Theory Francis T. Cullen, Cheryl Lero Jonson, 2016-01-18 The Second Edition of Correctional Theory Context and Consequences continues to identify and evaluate the major competing theories used to guide the goals policies and practices of the correctional system Authors Francis T Cullen and Cheryl Lero Jonson demonstrate that changes in theories can legitimize new ways of treating and punishing offenders and they help readers understand how transformations in the social and political context of U S society impact correctional theory and policy Designed to motivate readers to become sophisticated consumers of correctional information the book emphasizes the importance of using evidence based information to guide decisions rather than relying on nonscientific commonsense or ideology based beliefs Hard Time Robert Johnson, Ann Marie Rocheleau, Alison B. Martin, 2016-08-29 Hard Time A Fresh Look at Understanding and Reforming the Prison 4th Edition is a revised and updated version of the highly successful text addressing the origins evolution and promise of America's penal system Draws from both ethnographic and professional material and situates the prison experience within both contemporary and historical contexts Features first person accounts from male and female inmates and staff revealing what it's actually like to live and work in prison Includes all new chapters on prison reform and on supermax correctional facilities including the latest research on confinement long term segregation and death row Explores a wide range of topics including the nature of prison as punishment prisoner personality types and coping strategies gang violence prison officers custodial duties and psychological educational and work programs Develops

Introduction to Corrections Robert D. Hanser, 2023-05-12 Introduction to Corrections provides students with a comprehensive foundation of corrections that is practitioner driven and grounded in modern research and theoretical origins. Experienced correctional practitioner scholar and author Robert D. Hanser shows students how the corrections system works from classification security and treatment to demonstrating how and why correctional practices are implemented. The Fourth Edition includes a special emphasis on the role of technology in each chapter, new topics on medical care in jail, female drug offenders and controversies around the death penalty and the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on correctional practices. Data and examples drawn from federal government documents along with exercises that reinforce concepts in the text further aid student learning.

Closing the Justice Gap for Adult and Child Sexual Assault Anne Cossins, 2020-10-21 This book examines the justice gap and trial process for sexual assault against both adults and children in two jurisdictions: England and Wales and New South Wales, Australia. Drawing on decades of research, it investigates the reality of the policing and prosecution of sexual assault offences, often seen as one of the hardest crimes to prosecute across two similar jurisdictions. Despite the introduction of many reform options detailed in the book, satisfactory outcomes for victims and the public are still difficult to obtain. Cossins takes a new approach by examining the nature and effects of adversarialism on vulnerable witnesses, jury decision making and the structures of power within the trial process to show how and at what points that process is weighted against complainants of sexual assault in order to make evidence-based suggestions for reform. She argues that this justice gap is a result of a moralistic adversarial culture which fosters myths and misconceptions about rape and child sexual assault, thus requiring the prosecution to prove a complainant's moral worthiness. She argues this culture can only be eliminated by a radical replacement of the adversarial system with a trauma-informed system. By reviewing the relevant psychological literature, this book documents the triggers for re-traumatisation within an adversarial trial and discusses the reform measures that would be necessary to transform the sexual assault trial from one where the complainant's moral worthiness is on trial to a fully functioning trauma-informed system. It speaks to students and academics across subjects including law, criminology, gender studies and psychology and practitioners in law and victim services as well as policy makers.

Decision Making, Assessment and Risk in Social Work Brian J. Taylor, 2017-04-10 At a time when accountability and the avoidance of risk are increasingly demanded of social workers, the ability to make clear and informed decisions is essential. This book, written for practicing social workers undertaking their ASYE and compulsory CPD, has been designed to help professionals make sound judgments in increasingly complex contexts and under pressure. The focus is on empowering front-line professionals through reflective practice so that they are able to draw on multiple factors and perspectives and make sound problem-solving judgements. The book begins with the core concepts: client focus and legal background, before moving on to consider the collaborative processes and the nature of individual judgements. It then considers particular dimensions of social work decision making such as safeguarding taking risks assessment and dynamic decision tools and processes It then concludes by look at the organisational context of decision management with a focus on supervision training and effective communication
