Writing is designing, and writers are designers. Mastering the elements of different writing styles is as important in describing a designed work as an understanding of color, texture, and material form. The design writer must make the prose as necessary and exciting to read as a designed object, from the simplest business card or product packaging to the grandest monument. This book is for the student or the expert, the novice or the professional who seeks to communicate. With real-world examples of how and what to write when critiquing, explaining, discovering, introducing, and interpreting a piece of design, it presents a tantalizing world of possibilities for any design writer. The collected essays include a range of styles and disciplines from journalism, scholarship, criticism, and business. Contributors include Sarah Boxer, Akiko Busch, Liz Danzico, Jarrett Fuller, Colette Gaiter, Karrie Jacobs, Mark Kingsley, Julie Lasky, Warren Lehrer, Rob Walker, Michele Y. Washington, and many more. Explaining design means writing intelligibly and creatively. This book covers it all for and through those who practice, chronicle, critique, and observe graphic, product, industrial, and architectural design. Gen Z Effect Tom Koulopoulos, Dan Keldsen, 2016-11-03 One of the most profound changes in business and society is the emergence of the post-Millennial generation, Gen Z. economically engaged What might this mean for business markets and educational institutions in the future In this revolutionary new book The Gen Z Effect The Six Forces Shaping the Future of Business authors Tom Koulopoulos and Dan Keldsen delve into a vision of the future where disruptive invention and reinvention is the acknowledged norm touching almost every aspect of how we work live and play From radical new approaches to marketing and manufacturing to the potential obliteration of intellectual property and the shift to mass innovation to the decimation of our oldest learning institutions through open source and adaptive learning The Gen Z Effect provides a mind bending view of why we will need to embrace Gen Z as the last best hope for taking on the world s biggest challenges and opportunities and how you can prepare yourself and your business for the greatest era of disruption prosperity and progress the world has ever experienced
