Report of the Dean University of the Philippines. College of Agriculture, 1925 Introductory Crop Science Laboratory Manual Kevin Donnelly (Professor of Agronomy), Marshall Mark Hay, Chelsea Ahlquist, Yared Assefa, 2016 Theory and Practice of Sociocriticism Edmond Cros, 1988 Theory and Practice of Sociocriticism was first published in 1988 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions Edmond Cros is a leading French Hispanicist whose work is unique in Continental theory because it brings Spanish and Mexican texts into current literary debates which have so far centered mainly on the French and German traditions. Equally distinctive is the nature of his work which Cros terms sociocriticism. Unlike most sociological approaches to literature which leave the structure of texts untouched, sociocriticism aims to prove that the encounter with ideological traces and with antagonistic tensions between social classes is central to any reading of texts. Cros's method distinguishes between the semiotic and ideological elements within a text and involves the patient exacting reconstruction of the concrete text from these elements, a process that enables the sociocritic to interpret its fault lines, its internal contradictions, in the end its irreducibly social nature. As its title suggests, Theory and Practice of Sociocriticism is structured in two parts. Its opening chapters analyze sociological theories of discourse including those of Foucault, Bakhtin, and Goldman. In the second part, Cros applies theory to practice in readings of specific works: the film Scarface, contemporary Mexican poetry and prose, Octavio Paz, Carlos Fuentes, and the picaresque novel of the Spanish Golden Age. In their foreword, Jürgen Link and Ursula Link Heer differentiate sociocriticism from other social approaches to literature and show how Cros's method works in specific textual readings. They emphasize his resistance to the reductive modes and misreadings that dominate much of contemporary theory. Edmond Cros is a professor of literary theory and Hispanic studies at the Université Paul Valéry in Montpellier, France, and Andrew W. Mellon Professor of Hispanic Studies at the University of Pittsburgh. Jürgen Link teaches at the Ruhr Universität Bochum, and Ursula Link Heer at the Universität Siegen, both in West Germany.
