Langford, 2023-09-14 In this study Andrew M Langford demonstrates that the single post Pauline author of the Pastoral Epistles the Pastor crafts a stigmatizing depiction of his theological opponents by spatializing demonizing and pathologizing their alleged deviance Through close comparative readings of ancient medical and philosophical literature the author argues for the necessity of interpreting the Pastor s pathologizing of deviance in light of ancient disease etiologies and models of corporeality With this book the author contributes to recent interpretive insights about the function of authorial fiction in antiquity and demonstrates that the Pastor is self consciously appropriating the Pauline epistolary to craft his approach to his theological opponents
