Christianity and Controversies over Homosexuality in Contemporary Africa Ezra Chitando, Adriaan van Klinken, 2016-05-12 Issues of homosexuality are the subject of public and political controversy in many African societies today. Frequently these controversies receive widespread attention both locally and globally such as with the Anti Homosexuality Bill in Uganda. In the international media these cases tend to be presented as revealing a deeply rooted homophobia in Africa fuelled by religious and cultural traditions. But so far little energy is expended in understanding these controversies in all their complexity and the critical role religion plays in them. Complementing the companion volume Public Religion and the Politics of Homosexuality in Africa this book investigates Christian politics and discourses on homosexuality in sub-Saharan Africa. The contributors present case studies from various African countries from Nigeria to South Africa and from Cameroon to Uganda focusing on Pentecostal Catholic and mainline Protestant churches. They critically examine popular Christian theologies that perpetuate homophobia and discrimination but they also discuss contestations of such discourses and emerging alternative Christian perspectives that contribute to the recognition of sexual diversity, social justice and human rights in contemporary Africa.

Public Religion and the Politics of Homosexuality in Africa Adriaan van Klinken, Ezra Chitando, 2016-04-14

Issues of same sex relationships and gay and lesbian rights are the subject of public and political controversy in many African societies today. Frequently these controversies receive widespread attention both locally and globally such as with the Anti Homosexuality Bill in Uganda. In the international media these cases tend to be presented as revealing a deeply rooted homophobia in Africa fuelled by religious and cultural traditions. But so far little energy is expended in understanding these controversies in all their complexity and the critical role religion plays in them. This is the first book with multidisciplinary perspectives on religion and homosexuality in Africa. It presents case studies from across the continent from Egypt to Zimbabwe and from Senegal to Kenya and covers religious traditions such as Islam, Christianity and Rastafarianism. The contributors explore the role of religion in the politicisation of homosexuality, investigate local and global mobilisations of power, critically examine dominant religious discourses and highlight the emergence of counter discourses. Hence they reveal the crucial yet ambivalent public role of religion in matters of sexuality, social justice and human rights in contemporary Africa.

Les Églises d'initiative africaine Hannes Wiher, 2019-12-31

La littérature sur le thème des églises d'initiative africaine est très abondante en anglais mais ce phénomène n'est pas encore un sujet de réflexion très abordé et approfondi dans le monde francophone. Il suscite souvent des réactions stéréotypées et négatives qui contrastent avec l'appréciation positive des membres et des promoteurs des églises d'initiative africaine. Comment faut-il donc voir ce mouvement d'envergure croissante ? Cet ouvrage donne la parole la fois aux membres et missiologues issus des églises d'initiative africaine et aux voix extérieures pour présenter ce phénomène en faisant une description puis une évaluation de la contextualisation faite par ces églises et mouvements. Ce deuxième texte en français sur les églises d'initiative africaine rédigé dans une perspective vangelique est le fruit d'un travail collectif des doctorants en missiologie de la Faculté de théologie vangelique de Bangui au Cameroun, largi quelques missiologues du Réseau vangelique de missiologues pour la francophonie.
