Reflections on Leadership Richard A. Couto, 2007-04-26 In Reflections on Leadership fifteen prominent leadership scholars pay tribute to James MacGregor Burns's book Leadership a classic in the field of leadership studies. The contributors address the puzzles and anomalies in his work such as the place of values in leadership, leadership as a causal factor in change, levels of analysis, interdisciplinary approaches to the study of leadership, the distance of his theory from everyday experience, the absence of gender and race, and more. Experiential Exercises in the Classroom Mary K. Foster, Vicki Fairbanks Taylor, Jennie L. Walker, 2021-06-25 The definitive guide to creating and using experiential exercises in the classroom. For anyone interested in continuously improving their teaching practice, this book provides an overview of the theory and empirical evidence for active learning and the use of experiential exercises. Using a prescriptive model and checklist for creating, adapting, or adopting experiential exercises in the classroom, the authors demonstrate evidence-based best practices for each step in the development and use of experiential exercises, including tips, worksheets, and checklists to facilitate use of these practices. The Handbook of Leadership Development Evaluation Kelly Hannum, Jennifer W. Martineau, Claire Reinelt, 2006-12-13 With the increase in the number of organizational leadership development programs, there is a pressing need for evaluation to answer important questions, improve practice, and inform decisions. The Handbook is a comprehensive resource filled with examples, tools, and the most innovative models and approaches designed to evaluate leadership development in a variety of settings. It will help you answer the most common questions about leadership development efforts, including: What difference does leadership development make? What development and support strategies work best to enhance leadership? Is the time and money spent on leadership development worthwhile? What outcomes can be expected from leadership development? How can leadership development efforts be sustained? The SAGE Handbook of Public Relations Robert Lawrence Heath, 2010 Reflecting advances in theory, research, and application in the discipline since the publication of the Handbook of Public Relations in 2001, this new volume is global in scope and unmatched in its coverage of both academic research and professional best practice. It presents major theories in the words of the leading advocates for each theory, positions public relations as a positive force to help make society more fully functional, and challenges academics and practitioners to identify best practices that can inform the work of those in the profession. Advances in Global Leadership Joyce S. Osland, B. Sebastian Reiche, Betina Szkudlarek, Mark E. Mendenhall, 2022-01-26 Advances in Global Leadership focuses on global leadership in relation to the COVID-19 pandemic, collecting insights from leading scholars and practitioners and fresh ideas from promising newcomers to the field, reflecting on nineteen different national responses to the global crisis. A Competency-Based Approach for Student Leadership Development Corey Seemiller, 2018-01-12 Looking to foster student leadership competency development? European Climate Leadership in Question Diarmuid Torney, 2015-08-14 An analysis of the European Union's engagement with China and India on climate change policy that sheds light on Europe's claim to international climate leadership The European Union has long portrayed itself as an international leader on climate change In this book the first systematic assessment of Europe's claim to climate leadership Diarmuid Torney analyzes the EU's engagement with China and India on climate policies from 1990 to the present Torney develops an analytical framework for assessing EU climate leadership that charts the factors driving the EU's engagement with China and India the form of the engagement and the Chinese and Indian response He argues that EU engagement was driven by a desire to build its international role growing concern regarding climate impacts and an interest in the economic opportunities provided by the transition to a low carbon global economy European engagement with China and India took the form of institutionalized dialogue and capacity building with more extensive contact with China than with India He finds little evidence of coherence between the EU's external climate change policies and other policy areas Indeed the overriding priority in both relationships was the deepening of trade Torney shows that China responded to the EU with limited normative emulation and lesson drawing India's principal response was resistance He argues that both European leadership on climate change and Chinese and Indian followership were severely constrained by a variety of factors including the nature and extent of the EU's capabilities and the domestic politics normative frames and material interests of China and India which did not align with the EU's agenda
