Reflections On Retirement In Teaching

Marilyn H. Oermann

Reflections On Retirement In Teaching:

Innovative Collaborative Practice and Reflection in Patient Education Bird, Jennifer Lynne, 2015-01-31 The process of patient education allows for patients to think about their health in new ways and for educators and professionals to propose new ways to heal with the ultimate goal of patients having a positive outlook on life and consistently maintained health Innovative Collaborative Practice and Reflection in Patient Education presents multigenre writing incorporating authors personal and professional stories along with academic theories It combines the fields of education and medicine presenting innovative approaches to health education and designing new approaches to healing This research publication will impact the field of health education and be of use to educators researchers practitioners professionals and patients Annual Review of Nursing Education, Volume 6, 2008 Marilyn H. Oermann, 2007-08-26 The Annual Review of Nursing Education addresses trends new developments and innovations in nursing education over the past year Chapters provide practical information and new ideas that educators and administrators can use in their own nursing programs Volume 6 looks at such intriguing topics as innovations in clinical teaching and evaluation partnerships for clinical teaching selecting clinical sites how students view their clinical experience grade inflation in nursing and using case studies for promoting critical thinking among others Sermons on Education, on Reflection, on the Greatness of God in the Works of Nature and in the Government of the World, on Charity, and on Various Other Topics George Joachim Zollikofer, 1806 Theological Reflection and Education for Ministry John E. Paver, 2006-01-01 On the integration of theory and practice theology and experience in Christian ministry Portraits of Academic Life in Higher Education, 2024-12-16 The academic experiences and emotions shared in these chapters can be described as thoughtful courageous insightful and worrisome Collectively authors draw a troubled higher education landscape that has evolved over the years from to put it mildly a more pleasant working environment in more generous times to a less pleasant working environment in today s more restrictive more competitive and more financially difficult times However on a positive note contributing authors share their understanding of the core purpose of the higher education institution and its mission as purveyors of that purpose through adherence to the university s stated triad of goals teaching research and service To Retire Or Not? Robert L. Clark, P. Brett Hammond, 2001 What impact has the end of mandatory retirement had on colleges and universities as well as on the academic job market From the Wharton School To Retire or Not outlines the critical issues associated with faculty aging retirement policy and human resource needs in higher education over the next decades Culturally Responsive Teaching and Reflection in Higher Education Sharlene Voogd Cochrane, Meenakshi Chhabra, Marjorie A. Jones, Deborah Spragg, 2017-02-03 Culturally Responsive Teaching and Reflection in Higher Education explores how postsecondary educators can develop their own cultural awareness and provide inclusive learning environments for all students Discussing best practices from the Cultural Literacy Curriculum Institute at Lesley University faculty and administrators who are committed to culturally responsive teaching reflect on how to create an inclusive environment and how educators can cultivate the skills attitudes and knowledge necessary for implementing culturally responsive curriculum and pedagogy Rather than a list of right answers essays in this important resource integrate discussion and individual reflection to support educators to enhance skills for responding effectively to racial cultural and social difference in their personal and professional contexts This book is as an excellent starting point or further enrichment resource to accompany program or institutional diversity and inclusion efforts

Narratives and Reflections in Music Education Tawnya D. Smith, Karin S. Hendricks, 2020-02-03 This volume offers chapters written by some of the most respected narrative and qualitative inquiry writers in the field of music education The authorship and scope are international and the chapters advance the philosophical theoretical and methodological bases of narrative inquiry in music education and the arts The book contains two sections each with a specific aim The first is to continue and expand upon dialogue regarding narrative inquiry in music education emphasizing how narrative involves the art of listening to and hearing others whose voices are often unheard The chapters invite music teachers and scholars to experience and confront music education stories from multiple perspectives and worldviews inviting an international readership to engage in critical dialogue with and about marginalized voices in music The second section focuses on ways in which narrative might be represented beyond the printed page such as with music film photography and performative pieces This section includes philosophical discussions about arts based and aesthetic inquiry as well as examples of such work

An Intellectual Adventurer in Archaeology: Reflections on the work of Charles Thomas Andy M Jones, Henrietta Quinnell, 2018-06-30 Charles Thomas 1928 2016 was a Cornishman and archaeologist whose career from the 1950s spanned nearly seven decades This period saw major developments that underpin the structures of archaeology in Britain today in many of which he played a pivotal part

Student Empowerment in Higher Education. Reflecting on Teaching Practice and Learner Engagement Anjoom A. Mukadam , 2020-05-04 Student Empowerment in Higher Education brings together the accumulated knowledge and experience of many accomplished teachers and students from higher education institutions around the world and has much to offer those who are engaged in higher education as students teachers or support staff The authors offer personal reflections in teaching learning mentoring assessment hands on activities course design and student identities in higher education across the globe supported by academic research and scholarship Readers are provided with a window into tried and tested empowering practices in varying contexts enabling them to see what works and what does not alongside the challenges and possibilities A distinctive feature of this book and its paramount strength is that it explores best practices in student empowerment whilst reflecting on matters of teaching and learning that are familiar to students and teachers alike and also explores practices in a variety of disciplines The intention of these volumes therefore is not only to inform readers about the diverse learning and teaching approaches of the authors but most importantly to facilitate processes of student empowerment and promote reflection on teaching and learning practices In recent decades higher education policy discourse has persistently implied that a university education is delivered to students under the impersonal banner of the student experience Not only does this commodify the diverse individual experiences of students into one marketable product it also creates false barriers and power dynamics between students and their teachers In Student Empowerment in Higher Education the students and lecturers who collaborated to write this important volume have literally blown such misleading notions out of the window I highly recommend each varied and autonomous chapter to learn what really inspires confidence and success in university students Professor Sarah Hayes Professor of Higher Education Policy University of Wolverhampton The two volumes of Student Empowerment in Higher Education offer the reader rich and varied examples and understandings of student empowerment from around the world The authors provide reflective accounts of learning and teaching from diverse perspectives and disciplines which focus on many different areas of practice in higher education It is this variety that will appeal to many readers as the source of ideas and inspiration for numerous possible routes to empowerment With many chapters co-authored by students and staff the book models the collective responsibility students and staff have for enhancing student empowerment Dr Catherine Bovill Senior Lecturer in Student Engagement University of Edinburgh Fulbright Scholar Elon University North Carolina USA Visiting Fellow Knowledge Exchange University of Winchester
