The Department of Labor's ... Findings on the Worst Forms of Child Labor, 2005 Social Protection for Africa's Children Sudhanshu Handa, Stephen Devereux, Douglas Webb, 2010-10-04 Social protection is an increasingly important part of the social policy dialogue in Africa and yet because of its relatively new place in a rapidly evolving agenda evidence on critical design choices such as targeting and on impacts of social protection interventions is mostly limited to case studies or small unrepresentative surveys This impressive collection makes a major contribution to building the evidence base drawing on rigorous analysis of social protection programmes in several African countries as well as original research and thinking on key topical issues in the social protection discourse Social Protection for Africa's Children is divided into four parts The first presents economic and human rights based arguments for social protection as an integral part of the social policy menu in Africa This is followed by a part on targeting which highlights some of the key policy trade offs faced when deciding between alternative target groups The third part presents rigorous quantitative evidence on the impact of social cash transfers on children from programmes in South Africa Malawi and Ethiopia and the final part addresses a set of issues related to social justice and human rights This book significantly advances existing knowledge about social protection for children in Africa both conceptually and empirically It makes a strong case for social protection interventions that address the short term amelioration and long term structural needs of children and shows that programming in this sector for children is both feasible and achievable Policy makers and practitioners in this sector will have in this book the theoretical and empirical evidence necessary to advance social protection for Africa's children in the decades to come Furthermore this book should be an essential resource to postgraduates and students focussing on development economics in Africa LCA of an ecolabeled notebook : consideration of social and environmental impacts along the entire life cycle Andreas Ciroth, Juliane Franze, 2011 This study investigates social and environmental impacts caused by an ecolabeled notebook along its entire life cycle In order to analyse the diverse effects of the laptop a social life cycle assessment and an environmental life cycle assessment were performed in parallel Both assessments together provide a holistic overview of positive and negative impacts in regard to social and environmental sustainability This book contains the complete final report written by GreenDeltaTC on behalf of the Belgian Federal Public Planning Service Sustainable Development It comprises the methodological background the social inventory process modifications with regard to the environmental inventory and detailed results of the impact assessment phase Further a newly developed social impact assessment method is presented and applied In addition recommendations on company and policy level were derived Resources in Education, 1996
