HUSEYIN NURSOY,2024-08-27 In this book the equations of energy units of feeds body weight definitions daily dry matter intake equations factors affecting of daily energy requirements heat production of body and its determination methods basal metabolism and respiratory coefficient latest energy equations conversion rates of energy units requirements tables and practical feeding guidelines for cattle This book does not cover the protein mineral vitamin and water requirements of cattle because the most important parameter for life and productivity in living is energy then protein In fact the energy issue is more complex than protein mineral vitamin and water I also focused on energy issue Simpler and latest equations were preferred without overwhelming mathematics Veterinary Ethics: Navigating Tough Cases Anne Quain,Siobhan Mullan,2017-05-24 What should a vet do when a client can't pay for their animal's treatment Or when asked their opinion on the killing of wildlife for disease control Or when observing an animal welfare problem whilst off duty Ethical problems are an everyday part of life for veterinarians but it can be difficult to combine personal values with professional conduct Veterinary Ethics presents a range of ethical scenarios that veterinarians and other allied animal health professionals may face in practice The scenarios discussed are not only exceptional cases with potentially significant consequences but often less dramatic everyday situations The responses to these ethical problems are from practising veterinarians and acknowledged world experts in animal welfare and ethics The advice given is thorough and detailed covering different eventualities the ethical knots and dilemmas the personal feelings of those involved as well as objective recommendations on ethical decision making and where relevant guidance from veterinary governing bodies and the law The advice is framed in the form of veterinary life in the real world not necessarily an ideal world As well as practical guidance the book takes a step back and explores the different philosophical arguments and standpoints and the resultant solutions and problems of each approach examining the background and relationship between different philosophical schools of thought ethics and veterinary care The book strives to present decision making in response to ethical problems as transparently as possible employing a range of ethical frameworks The book also challenges the reader about their own decision making in given situations what factors to consider and how they would achieve certain outcomes 5m Books Prison Capital Lydia Pelot-Hobbs,2023-11-28 Every year between 1998 to 2020 except one Louisiana had the highest per capita rate of incarceration in the nation and thus the world This is the first detailed account of Louisiana's unprecedented turn to mass incarceration from 1970 to 2020 Through extensive research Lydia Pelot Hobbs illuminates how policy makers enlarged

Louisiana's carceral infrastructures with new prisons and jail expansions alongside the bulking up of police and prosecutorial power. At the same time these infrastructures were the products of multiscalar crises: the swings of global oil capitalism, liberal federal court and policy interventions, the rise of neoliberal governance and law and order austerity and racist and patriarchal moral panics surrounding crime. However, these crises have also created fertile space for anticarceral social movements. From incarcerated people filing conditions of confinement lawsuits and Angola activists challenging life without parole to grassroots organizers struggling to shrink the New Orleans jail following Hurricane Katrina and LGBTQ youth of color organizing against police sexual violence, grassroots movements stretch us toward new geographies of freedom in the lineage of abolition democracy. Understanding Louisiana's carceral crisis extends our understanding of the interplay between the crises of mass criminalization and racial capitalism while highlighting the conditions of possibility for dismantling carceral power in all its forms.
