literature has a long history The country is the most prolific publisher of children s books on the continent producing perhaps the highest quality literature in Africa Its traditions resonate within the larger world of children s literature but are solidly grounded in African myth and archetypes The African diaspora in the U S and elsewhere have stories rooted in these oral traditions Much has changed in South African literature for children since the 1994 transformation of the country A field once dominated by all white and mostly female writers and illustrators has diversified adding many new voices Shirley, Goodness and Mercy Chris van Wyk,2015-04-01 Shirley Goodness Mercy is a heart warming yet compellingly honest story about a young boy growing up in Newclare Coronationville and Riverlea during the apartheid era Despite Van Wyk s later becoming involved in the struggle this is not a book about racial politics Instead it is a delightful account of one boy s special relationship with the relatives friends and neighbours who made up his community and of the important coping role laughter and humour played during the years he spent in bleak and dusty townships In Shirley Goodness Mercy Chris van Wyk poet novelist and short story writer had created a truly remarkable work at once both thought provoking and vastly entertaining

Trauma, Memory, and Narrative in the Contemporary South African Novel ,2012-01-01 The contributions to this volume probe the complex relationship of trauma memory and narrative By looking at the South African situation through the lens of trauma they make clear how the psychic deformations and injuries left behind by racism and colonialism cannot be mended by material reparation or by simply reversing economic and political power structures Western trauma theories as developed by scholars such as Caruth van der Kolk Herman and others are insufficient for analysing the more complex situation in a postcolony such as South Africa This is because Western trauma concepts focus on the individual traumatized by a single identifiable event that causes PTSD Post Traumatic Stress Disorder What we need is an understanding of trauma that sees it not only as a result of an identifiable event but also as the consequence of an historical condition in the case of South Africa that of colonialism and more specifically of apartheid For most black and coloured South Africans the structural violence of apartheid s laws were the existential condition under which they had to exist The living conditions in the townships pass laws relocation and racial segregation affected great parts of the South African population and were responsible for the collective traumatization of several generations This trauma however is not an unclaimed and unclaimable experience Postcolonial thinkers who have been reflecting on the experience of violence and trauma in a colonial context writing from within a Fanonian tradition have on the contrary believed in the importance of reclaiming the past and of transcending mechanisms of victimization and resentment so typical of traumatized consciousnesses Narration and the novel have a decisive role to play here Sol Plaatje Chris Van Wyk,2003 The Christian Intelligencer and Mission Field ,1923 South African Journal of Labour Relations ,1990
