Transformative Approaches to Social Justice Education Nana Osei-Kofi, Bradley Boovy, Kali Furman, 2021-08-04 Transformative Approaches to Social Justice Education is a book for anyone with an interest in teaching and learning in higher education from a social justice perspective and with a commitment to teaching all students This text offers a breadth of disciplinary perspectives on how to center difference power and systemic oppression in pedagogical practice arguing that these elements are essential to knowledge formation and to teaching Transformative Approaches to Social Justice Education is structured as an ongoing conversation among educators who believe that teaching from a social justice perspective is about much more than the type of readings and assignments found on course syllabi Drawing on the broadest possible definition of curriculum transformation the volume demonstrates that social justice education is about both educators social locations and about course content It is also about knowing students and teaching beyond the traditional classroom to meaningfully include local communities social movements archives and colleagues in student and academic affairs Premised on the notion that continuous learning and growth is critical to educators with deep commitments to fostering critical consciousness through their teaching Transformative Approaches to Social Justice Education offers interdisciplinary and innovative collaborative approaches to curriculum transformation that build on and extend existing scholarship on social justice education Newly committed and established social justice pedagogues share their experiences taking up the many difficult questions pertaining to what it means for all of us to participate in shaping a more just shared future Women and Religion Susan M.

Shaw, 2021-08-09 This volume offers students a broad examination of the impact of religion on the lives of women around the world focusing on differences among women indigenous religions the impact of religion in colonization and resistance to religious oppression Sexism pervasive in religion limits access to high leadership positions dictates gender related religious practices and roles portrays women in limited ways in sacred texts excludes or condemns them if they are lesbian bisexual or transgender and makes them subject to violence by people of other faiths as well as their own This volume is organized into eight chapters each focusing on a different region of the world North America Latin America and the Caribbean Europe North Africa and the Middle East Sub Saharan Africa Central and East Asia South and Southeast Asia and Oceania Chapters cover women s status and experiences in the religions of each region including indigenous religions and such major world religions as Christianity Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism Additionally they cover issues of religion for women such as women in religious leadership women in sacred texts LGBTQ issues in religion the intersections of religion and politics for women the legacy of Christian missionaries on the colonial project religious violence against women and women s resistance to religious oppression A Marginal Majority Elizabeth Flowers, Karen K. Seat, 2023-08-18 In step with the MeToo movement and third wave feminism women s roles provoke lively debate in today s evangelical sphere The Southern Baptist Convention SBC has a complicated past regarding this issue and determining what exactly women s roles in home church and society should be or even what these roles should be called has been a contentious subject In A Marginal Majority Women Gender and a Reimagining of Southern Baptists editors Elizabeth H Flowers and Karen K Seat and eight other contributors examine the SBC s complex history regarding women and how that history reshapes our understanding of the denomination and its contemporary debates This comprehensive volume starts with women as SBC fundraisers moves to the ways they served Southern Baptist missions and considers their struggles to find a place at Southern Baptist seminaries as well as their launching of teaching or women s ministries Along the way it introduces new personalities offers fresh considerations of familiar figures and examines the power dynamics of race and class in a denomination that dominated the South and grew into a national behemoth Additionally the essay collection provides insights into why the SBC has often politically aligned with the right Not only did the denomination become increasingly oriented toward authoritarianism as it clamped down on evangelical feminism but as several contributors reveal even as Southern Baptist women sought agency they often took it from others Read together the chapters strike a somber tone challenging any triumphal historiography of the past By providing a history of contentious issues from the nineteenth century to the present day A Marginal Majority provides invaluable context for the recurrent struggles women have faced within the United States largest Protestant denomination Moreover it points to new directions in the study of American denominational life and culture

Sexual Reformation? Manitza Kotze,Nadia Marais,Nina Muller van Velden,2022-02-28 Inasmuch as sex and sexuality are not words often spoken from pulpits and in academic theological circles a vast number of utterances have been made in the name of so called Christian values and biblical views on sex and sexuality These are often given from moral ethical perspectives and seemingly very prescriptive who should have sex with whom when sex should take place which purposes sex should serve and especially when sex is wrong Moreover often there is little or no recognition of the complexities surrounding human sexuality resulting in what appears to be a blueprint for sexuality applicable to all persons This volume contains fourteen theological and ethical reflections by South African scholars on human sexuality with the aim of exploring what a sexual reformation within Christian dialogue might entail Presented in three sections namely systematic theological reflections biblical reflections and ethical reflections the essays represent a range of topics from a variety of perspectives Luther and marriage sexual abuse in the Catholic Church body theology and the sexual revolution reproductive technologies sexuality and reproduction reproductive loss hermeneutical choices and gender reformation in South Africa queer engagements with bra Joseph explorations on Paul and sex rape culture and violent deities the church s moral authority and sexual ethics practical theological considerations regarding infertility empirical research on masculinities in Zambia and the lived experience of transgender people in African Independent Churches
