PREVIEW

Your school's principal has just enacted a policy regarding dress code violations that you believe unfairly targets certain students. You would like to voice your opinion, but are concerned that doing so might label you a troublemaker. Which of the following courses of action should you take?

- A. Ask for an appointment with the principal and explain your concerns about the policy face to face.
- B. Create a pamphlet that outlines your arguments against the new policy and pass it out to students at lunchtime.
- C. Stand on the sidewalk outside the school and, as students leave school for the day, protest loudly against the new policy.
- D. Ask your parents if you can transfer to another school where you know the dress code policy is fairer.
- E. Stay quiet and wait to see if other students are also upset before you start speaking out against the policy.
