

Theme: Individuals, Groups, Institutions — Writing and Reform

Throughout United States history, individuals have used writing as a way to focus attention on issues facing the American people. To resolve the issues raised in these writings, actions have been taken by the government, groups, or individuals.

Task:

Select two pieces of writing that have focused attention on issues facing American society and for each

- Describe the historical circumstances surrounding the issue addressed by the author
- Discuss an action taken by the government or a group or an individual in response to the issue raised by the author

You may use any piece of writing from your study of United States history that focuses attention on an issue facing American society. Some suggestions you might wish to consider include:

Common Sense by Thomas Paine (1776), Uncle Tom's Cabin by Harriet Beecher Stowe (1852), How the Other Half Lives by Jacob Riis (1890), The Jungle by Upton Sinclair (1906), "I, Too, Sing America" by Langston Hughes (1925), The Other America by Michael Harrington (1962), Silent Spring by Rachel Carson (1962), The Feminine Mystique by Betty Friedan (1963), and "Letter from Birmingham Jail" by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. (1963).

Theme: Constitutional Principles — Individual Rights

Throughout United States history, many different groups have faced discrimination. The federal and state governments have taken actions that have either protected or limited the rights of these groups in American society.

Task: Select two different groups in American society who have faced discrimination and for each

- Describe one specific example of discrimination faced by the group
- Describe one action taken by the federal or state governments related to this example of discrimination
- Discuss how the action taken by the federal or state governments either protected or limited the rights of the group

You may use any example from your study of United States history. Some groups you might wish to consider include: Native American Indians, African Americans, Asian Americans, Hispanic Americans, women, the elderly, and the disabled.

Theme: Geography — Development of the United States

Many important events in United States history have been influenced by geography. Geographic factors or conditions include location, size, climate, natural resources, and physical features. These events in turn have had political, social, and economic impacts on the development of the United States.

Task:

Identify two important events in United States history and for each

- Describe how a geographic factor or condition influenced the event
- Discuss the political, social, and/or economic impacts of this event on the development of the United States

You may use any important event that was influenced by geographic factors or conditions.

Some suggestions you might wish to consider include the Louisiana Purchase, the construction of the Erie Canal, migration to California in the late 1840s, the Civil War, the purchase of Alaska, the building of the transcontinental railroad, the acquisition of the Philippines, the building of the Panama Canal, the creation of the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA), and the construction of the interstate highway system
