Regions Of Sorrow Anxiety And Messianism In:

Regions of Sorrow Susannah Young-ah Gottlieb, 2003 W H Auden and Hannah Arendt belonged to a generation that experienced the catastrophic events of the mid twentieth century and they both sought to respond to the enormity of the novel phenomena they witnessed Regions of Sorrow explores the remarkable affinity between their works As incisive exponents and uncompromising proponents of the insuperable condition of plurality Auden and Arendt give voice to an unexpected and inconspicuous messianism a messianism in which contingency frailty and faultiness are neither rejected nor scorned but celebrated as the indispensable elements of what Auden calls anxious hope Beginning with an examination of Arendt's Origins of Totalitarianism and Auden's Age of Anxiety which both conclude with meditations on Nazi terror the author turns to an unprecedented presentation of Arendt's Human Condition in terms of Jewish German messianism and concludes with Auden's In Praise of Limestone which lays out the frail and faulty space in which messianism breaks free from apocalyptic forecasts

Midcentury Suspension Claire Seiler, 2020-08-11 How did literary artists confront the middle of a century already defined by two global wars and newly faced with a nuclear future Midcentury Suspension argues that a sense of suspension a feeling of being between beginnings and endings recent horrors and opaque horizons shaped transatlantic literary forms and cultural expression in this singular moment Rooted in extensive archival research in literary print and public cultures of the Anglophone North Atlantic Claire Seiler's account of midcentury suspension ranges across key works of the late 1940s and early 1950s by authors such as W H Auden Samuel Beckett Elizabeth Bishop Elizabeth Bowen Ralph Ellison and Frank O'Hara Seiler reveals how these writers cultivated modes of suspension that spoke to the felt texture of life at midcentury Running counter to the tendency to frame midcentury literature in the terms of modernism or of our contemporary Midcentury Suspension reorients twentieth century literary study around the epoch's fraught middle

Lautréamont and Sade Maurice Blanchot, 2004 In this book Blanchot forcefully distinguishes his critical project from the major intellectual currents of his day surrealism and existentialism

The Bloomsbury Companion to Arendt Peter Gratton, Yasemin Sari, 2020-10-01 Hannah Arendt's 1906-1975 writings both in public magazines and in her important books are still widely studied today She made original contributions in political thinking that still astound readers and critics alike The subject of several films and numerous books colloquia and newspaper articles Arendt remains a touchstone in innumerable debates about the use of violence in politics the responsibility one has under dictatorships and totalitarianism and how to combat the repetition of the horrors of the past The Bloomsbury Companion to Arendt offers the definitive guide to her writings and ideas her influences and commentators as well as the reasons for her lasting significance with 66 original essays taking up in accessible terms the myriad ways in which one can take up her work and her continuing importance These essays written by an international set of her best readers and commentators provides a comprehensive coverage of her life and the contexts in which her works were written Special sections take up chapters on each of her key writings the reception of her work and key ways she interpreted those who influenced her If one has come to Arendt from one of her essays on freedom or from yet another bombastic account of her writings on Adolph Eichmann or as a student or professor working in the field of Arendt studies this book provides the ideal tool for thinking with and rediscovering one of the most important intellectuals of the past century But just as importantly contributors advance the study of Arendt into neglected areas such as on science and ecology to demonstrate her importance not just to debates in which she was well known but those touched off only after her death Arendt's approaches as well as her concrete claims about the political have much to offer given the current ecological and refugee crises among others In sum then the Companion provides a tool for thinking with Arendt but also for showing just where those thinking with her can take her work today Thinking with

Shakespeare Julia Reinhard Lupton, 2019-10-04 What is a person What company do people keep with animals plants and things Such questions bearing fundamentally on the shared meaning of politics and life animate Shakespearean drama yet their urgency has often been obscured Julia Reinhard Lupton gently dislodges Shakespeare's plays from their historical confines to pursue their universal implications From Petruchio's animals and Kate's laundry to Hamlet's friends and Caliban's childhood Lupton restages thinking in Shakespeare as an embodied act of consent cure and care Thinking with Shakespeare encourages readers to ponder matters of shared concern with the playwright by their side Taking her cue from Hannah Arendt Lupton reads Shakespeare for fresh insights into everything from housekeeping and animal husbandry to biopower and political theology Late Kant Peter Fenves, 2004-08-02 Immanuel Kant spent many of his younger years working on what are generally considered his masterpieces the three Critiques But his work did not stop there in later life he began to reconsider subjects such as anthropology and topics including colonialism race and peace In Late Kant Peter Fenves becomes one of the first to thoroughly explore Kant's later writings and give them the detailed scholarly attention they deserve In his opening chapters Fenves examines in detail the various essays in which Kant invents formulates and complicates the thesis of radical evil a thesis which serves as the point of departure for all his later writings Late Kant then turns towards the counter thesis of radical mean-ness which states that human beings exist on earth for the sake of another species or race of human beings The consequences of this startling thesis are that human beings cannot claim possession of the earth but must rather prepare the earth for its rightful owners Late Kant is the first book to develop the geo-ethics of Kant's thought and the idea that human beings must be prepared to concede their space for another kind of human It is essential reading for anyone interested in the later works of Immanuel Kant Technics and Time, 3 Bernard Stiegler, 2010-12-15 In the first two volumes of Technics and Time Bernard Stiegler worked carefully through Heidegger's and Husserl's relationship to technics and technology Here in volume three he turns his attention to the problematic relationship to technics he finds in Kant's Critique of Pure Reason particularly in the two versions of the Transcendental Deduction Stiegler relates this problematic to the cinematic nature of time which precedes cinema itself but reaches an apotheosis in it as the exteriorization process of schema through tertiary retentions and their mechanisms The book focuses on the relationship between these themes and the culture industry as defined by Adorno and Horkheimer that has supplanted the educational institutions on which genuine cultural participation depends This displacement Stiegler says has produced a malaise from which current global culture suffers The result is potentially catastrophic

Action and Appearance Anna Yeatman, Charles Barbour, Phillip Hansen, Magdalena Zolkos, 2011-04-21 Action and Appearance is a collection of essays that look into the crucial and complex link between action and appearance in Hannah Arendt's political thought Contributed by respected scholars the essays articulate around the following themes the emergence of political action when questioning the nature of law subjectivity and individuality the relationship between ethics and politics the nexus of co appearance thinking and truth and Arendt's writing as action and appearance For Arendt action is a worldly public phenomenon that requires the presence of others to have any effect Therefore to act is more than to decide as it is also to appear Much has been said about Arendt's theory of action but little attention has been paid to her approach to appearance as is done in this volume Action and Appearance explores both Arendt's familiar texts and previously unpublished or recently rediscovered texts to challenge the established readings of her work Adding to established debates it will be a unique resource to anyone interested in Hannah Arendt political thought political theory and political philosophy

Parting Ways Judith Butler, 2013-11-01 Judith Butler follows Edward Said's late suggestion that through a consideration of Palestinian dispossession in relation to Jewish diasporic traditions a new ethos can be forged for a one state solution Butler engages Jewish philosophical positions to articulate a critique of political Zionism and its practices of illegitimate state violence nationalism and state sponsored racism At the same time she moves beyond communitarian frameworks including Jewish ones that fail to arrive at a radical democratic notion of political cohabitation Butler engages thinkers such as Edward Said Emmanuel Levinas Hannah Arendt Primo Levi Martin Buber Walter Benjamin and Mahmoud Darwish as she articulates a new political ethic In her view it is as important to dispute Israel's claim to represent the Jewish people as it is to show that a narrowly Jewish framework cannot suffice as a basis for an ultimate critique of Zionism She promotes an ethical position in which the obligations of cohabitation do not derive from cultural sameness but from the unchosen character of social plurality Recovering the arguments of Jewish thinkers who offered criticisms of Zionism or whose work could be used for such a purpose Butler disputes the specific charge of anti Semitic self hatred often leveled against Jewish critiques of Israel Her political ethic relies on a vision of cohabitation that thinks anew about binationalism and exposes the limits of a communitarian framework to overcome the colonial legacy of Zionism Her own engagements with Edward Said and Mahmoud Darwish form an important point of departure and conclusion for her engagement with some key forms of thought derived in part from Jewish resources but always in relation to the non Jew Butler considers the rights of the dispossessed the necessity of plural cohabitation and the dangers of arbitrary state violence showing how they can be extended to a critique of Zionism even when that is not their explicit aim She revisits and affirms Edward Said's late proposals for a one state solution within the ethos of binationalism Butler's startling suggestion Jewish ethics not only demand a critique of Zionism but must transcend its exclusive Jewishness in order to realize the ethical and political ideals of living together in radical democracy Rightlessness in an Age of Rights Ayten Gündoğdu, 2015 Rightlessness in an Age of Rights offers a critical inquiry of human rights by rethinking the key concepts and arguments of twentieth century political theorist Hannah Arendt At the heart of this critical inquiry are the challenging questions posed by the contemporary struggles of asylum seekers refugees and undocumented immigrants
