The Caring Congregation Ministry Implementation Guide Karen Lampe,Melissa Collier Gepford,2021-05-04 Pastors and church leaders genuinely want to care for people in their congregations and communities But pastors cannot care for an entire church and most laypersons don t have the training to do it The Caring Congregation Ministry is a model for person to person care that s been proven to work in small and large churches across the U S It is a laity centered ministry where laypersons receive rigorous training and then are commissioned to serve as Congregational Care Ministers caring for others in their own congregation and their extended community This remarkable approach to congregational care was first developed by author Karen Lampe and her team at The United Methodist Church of the Resurrection in Kansas City It has been tested refined and strengthened and is now being adapted in all sorts of congregational settings One early adapter was co author Melissa Gepford who launched a Caring Congregation Ministry in her own rural church Together they have created this immensely practical guide for any pastor or leader seeking to create a congregational care ministry This Implementation Guide is the main book for getting started It introduces the ministry model and explains the Five Essentials which form the ministry s foundation It is extremely practical full of checklists and other tools to help pastors and other leaders understand and explain this way of providing congregational care The Implementation Guide also includes a section focused on the crucial component of this ministry the Congregational Care Minister or CCM This section fully describes the characteristics of CCM s how to recruit people to this ministry how to discern if candidates are a good fit and how to conduct the CCM training over a multi week period It details the critical information CCM s must know and the behaviors and habits they must practice in order to be effective Note that the companion book The Caring Congregation Ministry Care Minister s Manual is required for the CCM training It serves as a training workbook which then becomes the CCM s personal reference manual

Congressional Record United States. Congress,2002 The Congregationalist ,1979 Born Again and Again Megan K. Westra,2020-08-11 Got salvation What if salvation is not one more thing to acquire but an invitation to radical transformation Christians often turn life and faith into one big quest for the good life We expect to get a good job loving spouse a life of comfort personal satisfaction oh and salvation with a cherry on top Our acquisitive impulses aren t limited to lattes and designer jeans Christians in power throughout history have focused on getting people saved possessing the land and gaining dominance in government But what if Christianity isn t about striving for something more but about renouncing the power and privilege that prevent us from receiving God's abundant life. What if we are called not to treat salvation as one more thing to pursue but as an invitation to conform to Christ? Born Again and Again is the story of how a religion birthed on the margins of the Roman Empire became functionally the official religion of today's largest military superpower. Pastor and blogger Megan K Westra takes on the self-serving form of Christianity that has birthed the doctrine of discovery, planet-killing lifestyles, and civil religion. She leads readers into an encounter with the Jesus who gave up everything to come to us and invites us to give up everything to come to him. Conforming to Christ radically reorients our lives, priorities, and faith away from the pursuit of our own interests and toward a pattern of discipleship, setting us free from fear-based consumption and creating new possibilities for connection and belonging within the community of God's people.

Coping with Evil in Religion and Culture, 2008-01-01. The various Christian, Muslim, traditional African, and secular Western ways of imagining and coping with evil collected in this volume have several things in common. The most crucial, perhaps, and certainly the most striking aspect is the problem of defining the nature or characteristics of evil as such. Some argue that evil has an essence that remains constant, whereas others say its interpretation depends on time and place. However, much religious and secular interpretations of evil may have changed the human search for sense and meaning, never ends. Questions of whom to blame and whom to address: God, the devil, fate, bad luck, or humans remain at the center of our explanations and our strategies to comprehend, define, counter, or process the evil we do and the evil done to us by people. God, nature, or accident. Using approaches from cultural anthropology, religious studies, theology, philosophy, psychology, and history, the contributors to this volume analyze how several religious and secular traditions imagine and cope with evil.

The Conterminous United States Mineral Assessment Program, Wayne B. Solley, Robert R. Pierce, Howard A. Perlman, 1984. School Choice and the Question of Accountability, Emily Van Dunk, Anneliese M. Dickman, 2008-10-01. This timely book refocuses the debate about school choice programs with a nonpartisan assessment of the nation's largest and longest running private school voucher program, the high profile Milwaukee experiment, and finds that the system undercuts the promise of school choice. The authors argue that the Milwaukee experiment has not resulted in the one element necessary for school choice to be effective: an accountability system in which good schools thrive and poor schools close. They show that most ingredients of a robust market are missing. Well-informed consumers, parents, are not the norm. State fiscal incentives are counterproductive, and competition among public and choice schools is difficult to discern. They conclude that school choice could succeed if certain conditions were met and they offer guidelines to strengthen accountability and repair the voucher system.
