M. Gross, 2003-12-16 Exceptionally Gifted Children is unique The first edition of this book published in 1993 introduced 15 remarkable children some of the most gifted young people ever studied and traced their path through school exploring their academic achievements and in some cases enforced underachievement their emotional development their social relationships and their family relationships and upbringing This new edition reviews these early years but also follows the young people over the subsequent ten years into adulthood No previous study has traced so closely and so sensitively the intellectual social and emotional development of highly gifted young people This 20 year study reveals the ongoing negative academic and social effects of prolonged underachievement and social isolation imposed on gifted children by inappropriate curriculum and class placement and shows clearly the long lasting benefits of thoughtfully planned individual educational programs The young adults of this study speak out and show how what happened in school has influenced and still influences many aspects of their lives Miraca Gross provides a clear practical blueprint for teachers and parents who recognise the special learning needs of gifted children and seek to respond effectively Science in New Guinea , 1985 Indicators of Precollege Education in Science and Mathematics National Research Council, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Commission on Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Committee on Indicators of Precollege Science and Mathematics Education, 1985-01-01 Many studies point to the inadequacy of precollege education in the United States How can it be improved The development of effective policy requires information on the condition of education and the ability to measure change This book lays out a framework for an efficient monitoring system Key variables include teacher quality and quantity course content instructional time and enrollment and student achievement The Australian Physicist , 1976 Hearings United States.
