Marshall's correspondence is a richly detailed personal and public record. The correspondence was organized by topic, under the same rubrics as in the original, and is characterized by directness and logical thought. Although Marshall's letters are not always as polished as his public papers, they have been found to be the more revealing documents on which to depend for insight into his personality, his own struggles, his personal and political convictions. As they were written, representing thoughts, impressions, and the frequent decisions, they provide the most direct insight into Marshall's mind and his attitude toward his country and his people. The greatest regret of the project is that so many of the letters and documents were destroyed, and that the correspondence was so severely damaged by the fire at the great 1906 earthquake.

Household expenditures during the border emergency last December 1971 had prompted Singapore authorities to consider emergency measures and to set up a special budget (only at gross level) for that year of the first quarter, and report quarterly the adjustments and progress reflecting the various needs during and after the general budget. Additionally, the adjustment, related to the immediate use of resources for the period before, means that you need your better and those good better general budget arrangements for a period of three or four years.

Multi-Sector Engagement Initiatives is currently only implemented in countries where there is a significant number of stakeholders. It is used for projects that need the efforts of companies, university students, the general public, etc. Encouraging and motivating to the general public, encouraging them to participate in the work of projects, etc. It is suggested to develop and use the existing study tools (questionnaires, studies, etc.) and use them to collect the data of the study, to identify and select about 10-15 general public, to conduct the study and use the questionnaire to collect the following information:
