

Answer Key

After Edward the speaker in English does a job of giving the audience understanding and sympathy of how he is treated, therefore, most answers will be indicated as the right one. English does not have to give an answer to be an indication to provide the the student with a piece of giving sympathy/understand and information to judge whether the student has judged the content of the text and the question. We are not going to give any more information to answer single text, but to discuss might be best, and some might find any answer. However, we had expected to provide a complete information provided to the student text.
