Revealing Tacit Knowledge Embodiment And Explication Presence And Tacit Knowledge:

Revealing Tacit Knowledge Frank Adloff, Katharina Gerund, David Kaldewey, 2015-03-15 How does tacit knowledge inscribe itself into cultural and social practices As the established distinction between tacit and explicit or discursive forms of knowledge does not explain this question the contributions in this volume reconstruct describe and analyze the manifold processes by which the tacit reveals itself They focus for example on metaphors feelings and visualizations as explications of the tacit as well as on processes of embodiment Taken together they demonstrate that the tacit does not constitute a single or unified knowledge complex but has to be understood in its differentiated and fragmented forms In addition to scholarly essays the volume features interviews with Mark Johnson Theodore Schatzki and Lo c Wacquant With a Little Help from My Friends Paula J. Mellom, Rebecca K. Hixon, Jodi P. The Experience of Translation Madeleine Campbell, Ricarda Vidal, 2024-04-19 Campbell Vidal and their contributors expand the notion of translation beyond linguistic modal and medial borders to embrace posthumanist perspectives through a holistic experiential epistemology which envisions translation as engaged situated social practice The first of two volumes this book focuses on questions of materiality and play Drawing together contributions on theory methodology and practice from translators scholars and practitioners working in the creative and performing arts this book explores how contemporary experiential acts of interpretation mediation and negotiation can serve to bridge social and cultural discontinuities across time and space These range from ancestral past to digital present from rural to urban environments across the globe Experiential translation applies a transdisciplinary lens to problematize views of translation and untranslatability traditionally bound by structuralist frames of reference and the reserve of professional linguistic translation The chapters in this book apply this experiential lens to understand a pluriverse of creative translation practices where the translator's subject position in relation to the original is transformed by the role of experimentation creativity and play This book and its companion volume The Translation of Experience Cultural Artefacts in Experiential Translation will be of particular interest to translators and arts practitioners scholars and researchers in the transdisciplinary field of humanities Funding This work was supported by UKRI under AHRC Grant AH V008234 1 awarded to Ricarda Vidal King's College London Principal Investigator and Madeleine Campbell University of Edinburgh Co Investigator

Tracing Silences Ana Dragojlovic, Annemarie Samuels, 2023-06-06 Silence is crucial to our social world Responding to the growing scholarly interest in social sciences and humanities for more in depth engagements with social silence this book explores what it means to trace silences and to include traces of silences in our scholarly representations What qualifies as silence and how does it relate to articulation to voice visibility and representation How can silences be sensed and experienced viscerally as well as narratively And how do we think with and interpret silences in the face of potential unknowability Grounded in ethnographic research in the Netherlands Israel Turkey China and Indonesia the chapters all contribute to a theorization of silence that embraces multivocality unintelligibility and uncertainty of interpretation As a collection of cutting edge scholarly work at the intersection of anthropology and history Tracing Silences argues for an in depth engagement with the unspeakable and unspoken through a range of modes and methods and in the historical social and political ways in which they emerge and are enacted in the particularities of people s lives This book will be of interest to scholars and students of history anthropology sociology political science and archival studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of History and Anthropology

Choreographierte Körper im Theatron Sabine Huschka, 2019-12-03 Choreographierte Körper tanzen Doch auf den Bühnen des 18. Practice, Learning and Change Paul Hager, Alison Lee, Ann Reich, 2012-06-25 The three concepts central to this volume practice learning and change have received very different treatments in the educational literature an oversight directly confronted here While learning and change have been extensively theorised their various contexts articulated and analysed practice is notably underrepresented Where much of the literature on learning and change takes the notion of practice as an unexamined given its co-location as a term with various classifiers as in legal practice and teaching practice render it curiously devoid of semantic force In this book practice is the super ordinate organising idea Drawing on what has been termed the practice turn in contemporary theory the work develops a conceptual framework for researching learning in and on practice It challenges received notions of practice questioning the assumptions elisions connotations and silences on the subject In so doing it offers fresh insights into learning and change and how they relate to practice In tandem with this conceptual work the book details site ontological studies of practice and learning in diverse professional and workplace contexts examining the work of occupations as various as doctors chefs and orchestral musicians It demonstrates the value of theorising practice learning and change as well as exploring the connections between them amid our evolving social and institutional structures Making Sense of Mind-Game Films Simin Nina Littschwager,2019-06-27

Mind game films and other complex narratives have been a prominent phenomenon of the cinematic landscape during the period 1990 2010 when films like The Sixth Sense Memento Fight Club and Source Code became critical and commercial successes often acquiring a cult status with audiences With their multiple story lines unreliable narrators ambiguous twist endings and paradoxical worlds these films challenge traditional ways of narrative comprehension and in many cases require and reward multiple viewings But how can we make sense of films that don't always make sense the way we are used to While most scholarship has treated these complex films as narrative puzzles that audiences solve with their cognitive skills Making Sense of Mind Game Films offers a fresh perspective by suggesting that they appeal to the body and the senses in equal measures Mind game films tell stories about crises between body mind and world and about embodied forms of knowing and subjective ways of being in the world Through compelling in depth case studies of popular mind game films the book explores how these complex narratives take their embodied spectators with them into such crises The puzzling effect generated by these films stems from a conflict between what we think and what we experience between what we know and what we feel to be true and between what we see and what we sense The Dialogical Challenge of Leadership

Development Rob Koonce,Rens van Loon,2019-03-01 In the Foreword to The Dialogical Challenge of Leadership Development eminent scholar Ken Gergen shrewdly points to dialogue as an optimal tool for organizational communication in the 21st Century Gergen's comment serves as a quintessential backdrop of the book you are about to read Dialogical practice is no longer a distant option for organizational leaders to passively consider Instead it has become an indispensable tool for leaders who understand the critical significance of relational influence and sustainability for navigating today's increasingly complex and wicked organizational and societal challenges Thanks to the wide ranging talent and varied perspectives of leading scholars and seasoned practitioners from around the globe who graciously contributed to this volume The Dialogical Challenge of Leadership Development offers compelling evidence that whether they arise from Brazilian favelas or the world's largest corporate boardrooms the challenges which leaders face on a daily basis can be effectively addressed through dialogical practice Visible Identities Linda Martín Alcoff,2005-12-22 In the heated debates over identity politics few theorists have looked carefully at the conceptualizations of identity assumed by all sides Visible Identities fills this gap Drawing on both philosophical sources as well as theories and empirical studies in the social sciences Mart n Alcoff makes a strong case that identities are not like special interests nor are they doomed to oppositional politics nor do they inevitably lead to conformism essentialism or reductive approaches to judging others Identities are historical formations and their political implications are open to interpretation But identities such as race and gender also have a powerful visual and material aspect that eliminativists and social constructionists often underestimate Visible Identities offers a careful analysis of the political and philosophical worries about identity and argues that these worries are neither supported by the empirical data nor grounded in realistic understandings of what identities are Mart n Alcoff develops a more realistic characterization of identity in general through combining phenomenological approaches to embodiment with hermeneutic concepts of the interpretive horizon Besides addressing the general contours of social identity Mart n Alcoff develops an account of the material infrastructure of gendered identity compares and contrasts gender identities with racialized ones and explores the experiential aspects of racial subjectivity for both whites and non whites In several chapters she looks specifically at Latino identity as well including its relationship to concepts of race the specific forms of anti Latino racism and the politics of mestizo or hybrid identity

The Disability Studies Reader Lennard J. Davis, 2016-10-19 The fifth edition of The Disability Studies Reader addresses the post identity theoretical landscape by emphasizing questions of interdependency and independence the human animal relationship and issues around the construction or materiality of gender the body and sexuality Selections explore the underlying biases of medical and scientific experiments and explode the binary of the sound and the diseased mind The collection addresses physical disabilities but as always investigates issues around pain mental disability and invisible disabilities as well Featuring a new generation of scholars who are dealing with the most current issues the fifth edition continues the Reader s tradition of remaining timely urgent and critical Merleau-Ponty and

Utpaladeva Eleni Lorandou,2025-07-24 Bridging the gap between two distinct philosophical traditions Eleni Lorandou finds consonance in the philosophies of Merleau Ponty and Utpaladeva to articulate a radically phenomenal view of embodiment In an argument for the transcendence of limiting dualisms in thinking she explores how western postmodernism and Indian classical thought can speak to one another across centuries complementing each other in a new and constructive philosophy By bringing the phenomenology of Merleau Ponty and the Recognition School of Utpaladeva into dialogue Lorandou uncovers intriguing insights into the constitution and possibilities of human experience She delves into the intricacies of how we perceive the world around us and considers how our embodied existence shapes our understanding and experience Questioning the notion that our perception directly corresponds to an objective reality and focusing on the topics of other minds Lorandou draws soteriological conclusions Examining the relevance of Merleau Ponty s phenomenological reduction and Utpaladeva s self recognition this illuminating study turns our attention to the topics of perception embodiment realism intersubjectivity and ultimately the transformative implications of philosophical inquiry Situational Analysis in
