Parallel Curriculum Units for Language Arts, Grades 6-12 Jeanne H. Purcell, Jann H. Leppien, 2009-08-25 The Parallel Curriculum Model PCM holds the power to help students and teachers see the whole of what they are learning We invite practitioners to read more about this model and join us on a professional journey that we believe will yield that joy and wisdom that comes from seeing the whole To address the varying needs of teachers across the K 12 grade span as well as different content areas we decided to create a series of curriculum units based on PCM that could be used by practitioners It is our hope that the lessons not only underscore important and discipline specific content but also illuminate the four parallels in unique and enduring ways From the Introduction Design exemplary language arts lessons based on the Parallel Curriculum Model Want to create rigorous learning opportunities for students in language arts based on a deeper understanding of pedagogy and curriculum design As demonstrated in the best selling book The Parallel Curriculum the Parallel Curriculum Model PCM allows teachers to determine student performance levels and design intellectual challenges that help students develop expertise in specific subject areas Parallel Curriculum Units for Language Arts Grades 6 12 provides sample language arts units written by practicing teachers to demonstrate what high quality curriculum looks like within a PCM framework Covering a variety of topics including narrative voice literary criticism and writing original pieces these field tested units each contain Teacher rationales explaining the unit design Connections to concepts skills and national or state standards Step by step directions for delivering the lessons and unit Modification strategies assessments and reproducibles Use these examples to design your own units and deepen your understanding of how the PCM framework helps tailor curriculum to the abilities interests and learning preferences of each learner Observing Teacher Identities

through Video Analysis Amy Vetter, Melissa Schieble, 2015-09-25 Teaching is often seen as an identity process with teachers constructing and enacting their identities through daily interactions with students parents and colleagues This volume explores how conducting video analysis helps teachers gain valuable perspectives on their own identities and improve classroom practice over time This form of interactional awareness fosters reflection and action on creating classroom conditions that encourage equitable learning The volume follows preservice English teachers as they examine video records of their practice during student teaching and how the evidence impacts their development as literacy teachers of diverse adolescents By applying an analytic framework to video analysis the authors demonstrate how novice teachers use positioning theory to transform their own identity performance in the classroom Education scholars teachers and professional developers will greatly benefit from this unique perspective on teacher identity work Coro-coro: the World of the Scarlet Ibis Paul Arthur Zahl, 1954 Conversations with Kentucky Writers II Linda Elisabeth LaPinta, 2014-10-17 In this sequel to Conversations with Kentucky Writers I Linda Elisabeth Beattie brings together in depth interviews with sixteen of the state's premiere wordsmiths This new volume offers the perspectives of poets journalists and scholars as they discuss their views on creativity the teaching of writing and the importance of Kentucky in their work They talk frankly about how and why they do what they do The writers speak for themselves and their thoughts come alive on the page Beattie s interviews reveal the allegiances and alliances among Kentucky writers that have shaped literary trends by bringing together people with shared interests values subjects and styles The interviewees include authors who are captivated in other writers and in what they have to say about the process and craft of writing educators who are interested in Kentucky writers and what their work reveals about the nature of creativity and historians who are concerned with Kentucky s literary and cultural heritage The interviews reveal patterns in Kentucky literature from mid century to the millennium as authors talk about how their sense of place has changed over the decades and reveal the ways in which the roots of Kentucky writing have produced a literary flowering at the century s end Includes Sallie Bingham Joy Bale Boone Thomas D Clark John Egerton Sarah Gorham Lynwood Montell Maureen Morehead John Ed Pearce Ameilia Blossom Pegram Karen Robards Jeffrey Skinner Frederick Smock Frank Steele Martha Bennett Stiles Richard Taylor and Michael Williams Ph Lit Bronze A/I/E Prentice-Hall Staff,1991

Critical Approaches to Teaching the High School Novel Crag Hill,Victor Malo-Juvera,2018-10-25 This edited collection will turn a critical spotlight on the set of texts that has constituted the high school canon of literature for decades By employing a set of fresh vibrant critical lenses such as youth studies and disabilities studies that are often unfamiliar to advanced students and scholars of secondary English this book provides divergent approaches to traditional readings and pedagogical practices surrounding these familiar works By introducing and applying these interpretive frames to the field of secondary English education this book demonstrates that there is more to say about these texts ways to productively problematize them and to reconfigure how they may be read and used in the classroom
