Early Retirement Patterns in Europe Trudie Schils, 2005 The research in this dissertation is targeted at revealing the similarities and differences in European early retirement institutions including unemployment and disability schemes. In addition, using longitudinal data from a large number of European countries, the determinants of early retirement decisions are analysed empirically, and the role played by institutions is surveyed. This research shows that both less tight entitlement conditions and high generosity of early retirement schemes exert a disincentive effect on staying in work for the older worker.
