A Distant Magic M.J. Putney, Mary Jo Putney, 2007. Bestselling author M J Putney weaves a new tale in the Guardian series a dazzling romantic fantasy that takes readers not only from the elegant streets of London to a dangerously tempting Mediterranean island but across time. Jean Macrae's family is one of the most prominent clans of Guardians humans whose magical powers come from nature but Jean considers her skills modest at best. She has never been able to summon the intense earth altering ability that has marked the most talented Guardians and she is content without the adventure that such skill brings until the day she is confronted by a handsome stranger whose magic imprisons her on his pirate ship. Captain Nikolai Gregorio is convinced that Jean's father abandoned him as a child to slavers. Now he seeks vengeance against the Macraes no matter the cost. But Jean soon finds his untrained magical gifts far more dangerous than his thirst for revenge especially when they intensify her own powers to an unthinkable and enticing degree. And when Jean and Nikolai's irresistible connection summons a woman from the future they are charged with a formidable task protect those who will oppose slavery's evil and forever change the future of two nations. This quest will sweep Jean and Nikolai into the most fantastic of realms and try their powers beyond even what the Guardians themselves would dare. And when ultimate disaster threatens they will stake everything on a shattering test of love that could secure the fate of generations or destroy them and all they cherish. Praise for The Guardian Trilogy Magic and traditions of all kinds an abundance of well delineated characters and fascinating historical and political detail make A Distant Magic the most complex and unusual Guardian novel to date. Library Journal Putney's fully imagined magical system combined with Georgian detail is a terrific setting for a tale of intrigue and danger. The sexual tension is high in this enchanting blend of fantasy and romance. Booklist starred review. Enchanting Putney does a fine job of weaving magical elements together with actual historical events to create a rich romantic tapestry. Publishers Weekly. Heir to an ancient title Simon Malmain the Earl of Falconer is well known among the Guardians humans with magical powers derived from nature. Well known but not always well loved for those who enforce the law are rarely embraced by those whom they protect and this is equally true whether the law is magical or mundane. A routine mission to confront a rogue Guardian who has misused his powers turns disastrous when Simon's quarry

Lord Drayton captures his pursuer in a transformation spell that can only be released by Drayton or death Aid arrives in the form of Meg a fey young woman who first traps Simon then frees him As they flee together Simon recognizes that Meg is also a victim of Drayton s evil enchantments and he restores her nature and innate magic Though her memory is still clouded she is freed at last from a shadowy world of fear and lost identity She agrees to help Simon bring down Drayton The need for each other s magic binds them together and releases the more ancient magic of passion But desire cannot be satisfied until the rogue mage is stopped For Drayton has a diabolical plan that will profoundly alter the course of Britain s future Even the combined power of Simon and Meg may not be enough to stave off catastrophe Only a desperate act of love may win back the future or destroy all they hold dear Praise for Stolen Magic A wondrously original tale this is a haunting evening s read Romantic Times Spellbinding Putney s skill as a historical romance novelist serves her well Publishers Weekly Blends romantic suspense with fantasy to produce a graceful tale of magical intrigue and the power of love to overcome evil Set in the eighteenth century this meticulously researched and emotionally convincing story launches a promising new series and should appeal to fans of both fantasy and romance Library Journal The Guardian Trilogy A Kiss of Fate 1 Stolen Magic 2 A Distant Magic 3 Unseen Magic A Guardian Novella Set in WWII
