Political Cartoons For Eoc:

Breaking Rank Norm Stamper, 2009-04-27 Opening with a powerful letter to former Tacoma police chief David Brame who shot his estranged wife before turning the gun on himself Norm Stamper introduces us to the violent secret world of domestic abuse that cops must not only navigate but which some also perpetrate Former chief of the Seattle police force Stamper goes on to expose a troubling culture of racism sexism and homophobia that is still pervasive within the twenty first century force then he explores how such prejudices can be addressed He reveals the dangers and temptations that cops face describing in gripping detail the split second life and death decisions Stamper draws on lessons learned to make powerful arguments for drug decriminalization abolition of the death penalty and radically revised approaches to prostitution and gun control He offers penetrating insights into the blue wall of silence police undercover work and what it means to kill a man And Stamper gives his personal account of the World Trade organization debacle of 1999 when protests he was in charge of controlling turned violent in the streets of Seattle Breaking Rank reveals Norm Stamper as a brave man a pioneering public servant whose extraordinary life has been dedicated to the service of his community

Popular Culture in Africa Stephanie Newell, Onookome Okome, 2013-11-12 This volume marks the 25th anniversary of Karin Barber's ground breaking article Popular Arts in Africa which stimulated new debates about African popular culture and its defining categories Focusing on performances audiences social contexts and texts contributors ask how African popular cultures contribute to the formation of an episteme With chapters on theater Nollywood films blogging and music and sports discourses as well as on popular art forms urban and youth cultures and gender and sexuality the book highlights the dynamism and complexity of contemporary popular cultures in sub Saharan Africa Focusing on the streets of Africa especially city streets where different cultures and cultural personalities meet the book asks how the category of the people is identified and interpreted by African culture producers politicians religious leaders and by the people themselves The book offers a nuanced strongly historicized perspective in which African popular cultures are regarded as vehicles through which we can document ordinary people's vitality and responsiveness to political and social transformations

Communicative Perspectives on COVID-19 in Ghana Nancy Henaku, G. Edzordzi Agbozo, Mark Nartey, 2023-09-29 This collection explores the communicative dimensions of the COVID 19 pandemic in Ghana redressing the absence of perspectives from Africa and the Global South in pandemic discourses and highlighting the importance of considering the impact of local contexts in global crises The volume critically reflects on the significance of communicative dimensions understood here as the effects of communication on bidirectional flows between senders and receivers on many different aspects of the coronavirus pandemic Grounded in transnational and interdisciplinary perspectives and drawing on data from the Ghanaian experience the book showcases how important it is for local factors to be taken into account by governments medical professionals social commentators and everyday people in communicating during a pandemic when local cultures histories and infrastructures all play a role in shaping communication and the dissemination of knowledge Chapter examines such topics as the role of metaphor the use of social media in disinformation and the range of strategies and channels employed by stakeholders This volume centers the pandemic experience in a Global South context demonstrating the importance of a greater focus on local contexts in understanding communication in a time of pandemic This book will be of interest to students and scholars in intercultural communication crisis communication health communication discourse analysis and African studies Roadmap to the Virginia SOL

Leustean, 2014-05-30 This book provides an up to date comprehensive overview of Eastern Christian churches in Europe the Middle East America Africa Asia and Australia Written by leading international scholars in the field it examines both Orthodox and Oriental churches from the end of the Cold War up to the present day The book offers a unique insight into the myriad church state relations in Eastern Christianity and tackles contemporary concerns opportunities and challenges such as religious revival after the fall of communism churches and democracy relations between Orthodox Catholic and Greek Catholic churches religious education and monastic life the size and structure of congregations and the impact of migration secularisation and globalisation on Eastern Christianity in the twenty first century Freedom of Speech and Islam Erich Kolig, 2016-04-15

Freedom of speech and expression is considered in the West a high public good and an important social value underpinned by legislative and ethical norms Its importance is not shared to the same extent by conservative and devout Muslims who read Islamic doctrines in ways seemingly incompatible with Western notions of freedom of speech Since the Salman Rushdie affair in the 1980s there has been growing recognition in the West that its cherished value of free speech and associated freedoms relating to arts the press and media literature academia critical satire etc episodically clash with conservative Islamic values that limit this freedom for the sake of holding religious issues sacrosanct Recent controversies such as the Danish cartoons the Charlie Hebdo affair Quran burnings and the internet film The Innocence of Muslims which have stirred violent reactions in the Muslim world have made the West aware of the fact that Muslims religious sensitivities have to be taken into account in exercising traditional Western freedoms of speech Featuring experts across a spectrum of fields within Islamic studies Freedom of Speech and Islam considers Islamic concepts of blasphemy apostasy and heresy and their applicability in the modern world Spanish Culture and Society Barry Jordan, 2017-09-25 First published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Revolution Has Come Robyn C. Spencer, 2016-11-17 In The Revolution Has Come Robyn C. Spencer traces the Black Panther Party's organizational evolution in Oakland California where hundreds of young people came to political awareness and journeyed to adulthood as members Challenging the belief that the Panthers were a projection of the leadership Spencer draws on interviews with rank and file members FBI files and archival materials to examine the impact the organization's internal politics and COINTELPRO's political repression had on its evolution and dissolution She shows how the Panthers members interpreted implemented and influenced party ideology and programs initiated dialogues about gender politics highlighted ambiguities in the Panthers armed stance and criticized organizational priorities Spencer also centers gender politics and the experiences of women and their contributions to the Panthers and the Black Power movement as a whole Providing a panoramic view of the party's organization over its sixteen year history The Revolution Has Come shows how the Black Panthers embodied Black Power through the party's international activism interracial alliances commitment to address state violence and desire to foster self determination in Oakland's black communities Hate Speech and Freedom of Speech in Australia Katharine Gelber, Adrienne Sarah Ackary Stone, 2007 Hate speech laws have existed in various forms in Australia for well over a decade Unlike other countries such as the United States and Canada they have not faced constitutional hurdles to their existence The general acceptance of hate speech laws in Australia opens intellectual space for the exploration of a range of interesting questions regarding the laws operation the underlying values they pursue and the context within which hate speech is occurring How should the regulation of hate speech be balanced against Australia's political and cultural commitment to freedom of speech Who are the hate speakers and how does their speech manifest What types of hate speech are targeted by existing laws How are these laws enforced How can the laws be changed to improve governments response to hate speech How does the emergence of bills of rights affect the regulation of hate speech Drawing on a broad range of academic and practical experts this book addresses these questions The essays in first part of this book outline the landscape within which hate speech regulation occurs They include consideration of the legal policy and historical context for vilification the ways in which the language of hatred is changing and a new look at the longstanding debate about the tension between freedom of speech and hate speech as a conflict between liberty and equality In part two the book considers the practice of hate speech regulation in a variety of Australian institutions and includes practical perspectives from the legal profession In the final part the essays consider hate speech regulation within a broader human rights framework taking into account the emergence of bills of rights in Australian states Madison Magazine, 1986 Dictionary of American History James Truslow Adams, 1963 Australian Current Law Reporter, 2004 Africa and the ICC Kamari M.
