S. Eliot and Michelangelo Harry Eiss, 2017-05-11 Do I dare disturb the universe It is a question recognized by people around the world If typed into the internet hundreds of examples appear Many know that it comes from one of the best known poems of the twentieth century T S Eliot's The Love Song of J Alfred Prufrock What many do not know is that Eliot dramatically shifted his views at the height of his fame for writing such dark poetry as

Calvin and the Federal Vision Jeong Koo Jeon, 2009-06-12 John Calvin 1509-64 was the pinnacle of the sixteenth century Protestant Reformation in Europe As we celebrate the five hundred year anniversary of his birth it is worthy to explore Calvin's covenant theology which may be one of the best windows to understand and evaluate his theology as a whole In recent years the Federal Vision has been surfaced in the American conservative Reformed and evangelical circles It has strong hermeneutical theological and practical attachment with Calvin Although Calvin was a covenant theologian he firmly maintained the evangelical distinction between law and gospel especially in his exposition of justification by faith alone sola fide and salvation by grace alone sola gratia with a balanced emphasis of believers covenantal obedience Moreover we will find out that Calvin not only applied the distinction between law and gospel to soteriology but also in the depiction of redemptive history. In Calvin the distinction between law and gospel was foundational for the depiction of biblical vision of eschatology in the Garden of Eden before the Fall and under the Old Covenant. However the exponents of the Federal Vision deny any validity of the distinction between law and gospel in hermeneutics theology and practice while they identify themselves with those of Calvin. In that sense we may identify the Federal Vision not with the Protestant Reformation and Calvin but as consistent monocovenantalism in which they deny the distinction between law and gospel and apply that monocovenantal principle consistently to their understandings of hermeneutics soteriology the doctrine of double predestination and sacramental theology.

Reasoning from the Scriptures with Catholics Ron Rhodes, 2000-01-01 Anyone interested in sharing the gospel with Catholic friends or understanding where members of that denomination stand on important points of theology will appreciate this thorough yet easy to use reference. Using the simple step by step format applauded by readers in Rhodes previous books Reasoning from the Scriptures with Catholics covers many theological issues that divide Protestants and Catholics including purgatory and indulgences the reverence of Mary mother of Jesus papal infallibility Catholic traditions and much more. Each chapter examines a single Catholic belief or practice as taught in the Catholic Catechism and other major Catholic sources provides biblical responses and offers questions to help Catholics examine their church's readings. Pastors teachers and lay leaders will find this insightful guide a must have tool for sharing the good news of salvation by faith alone with Catholic friends and family members.
