The Zebra Murders Prentice Earl Sanders, Bennett Cohen, 2006 On the night of October 20 1973 a white couple strolling down Telegraph Hill were set upon and butchered by four young black men Thus began a reign of terror that lasted six months and left 15 whites dead and the entire city in a state of panic The intent was nothing less than an attempt to instigate a race war With pressure on the San Francisco Police Department mounting daily and the murders showing no sign of abating young homicide detectives Prentice Earl Sanders and his colleague Rotea Gilford both African American were assigned to the cases The problem was Sanders and Gilford were in the midst of a trail blazing suit against the SFPD for racial discrimination which in those days was rampant The backlash was immediate The force needed Sanders's and Gilford's knowledge of the black community to help stem the brutal murders but the SFPD made it known that in a tight situation no white back up would be forthcoming In these impossible conditions the oppressive white power structure on the one hand the violent black radicals on the other Sanders and Gilford knew they were sitting ducks Still they set out to find those guilty of the Zebra Murders and bring them to justice This is their incredible story

Bearing Witness Wendy Griswold, 2018-06-05 Greed frustrated love traffic jams infertility politics polygamy These together with depictions of traditional village life and the impact of colonialism made familiar to Western readers through Chinua Achebe's writing are the stuff of Nigerian fiction Bearing Witness examines this varied content and the determined people who against all odds write publish sell and read novels in Africa's most populous nation Drawing on interviews with Nigeria's writers publishers booksellers and readers surveys and a careful reading of close to 500 Nigerian novels from lightweight romances to literary masterpieces Wendy Griswold explores how global cultural flows and local conflicts meet in the production and reception of fiction She argues that Nigerian readers and writers form a reading class that unabashedly believes in progress rationality and the slow but inevitable rise of a reading culture But they do so within a society that does not support their assumptions and does not trust literature making them modernists in a country that is simultaneously premodern and postmodern Without privacy reliable electricity political freedom or even social toleration of bookworms these Nigerians write and read political satires formula romances war stories complex gender fiction blood and sex crime capers nostalgic portraits of village life and profound explorations of how decent people get by amid urban chaos Bearing Witness is an inventive and moving work of cultural sociology that may be the most comprehensive sociological analysis of a literary system ever written African Womanhood and the Feminist Agenda Musingafi, Maxwell Constantine Chando, Hungwe, Chipo, 2024-01-16 Within academic circles there is a longstanding issue concerning the portrayal and understanding of African womanhood Frequently these narratives are crafted by outsiders predominantly Western scholars often distorting the lived experiences and unique perspectives of African women This has led to a skewed and sometimes negative perception of African women reinforcing stereotypes and sidelining their voices in critical discussions Moreover this misrepresentation has real world consequences as it impacts social justice initiatives and development projects that rely on misguided narratives rather than the authentic voices of African women African Womanhood and the Feminist Agenda emerges as an essential solution to the misrepresentation of African women This comprehensive and meticulously researched book offers an alternative narrative one that is rooted in African perspectives and experiences It addresses the historical cultural and political dimensions of African womanhood providing a rich and nuanced understanding of this multifaceted topic
