Copyright Office,1922 John Gower Russell A. Peck,Robert F. Yeager,2017 The topics of selfhood and otherness lie at the heart of these new assessments of John Gower's poetry The first part of the book on knowing the self and others focuses on cognition brain functions imagination and the internal and external factors that affect one's sense of being from sensation and inner emotive effects within body parts to cosmic perspectives morality and theology as voiced by language and storytelling The second on the essence of strangers explores the interconnections of sensation and aesthetics it also considers kinds of social dysfunction whether through racial or gender conflict or religious and political warfare The final part of the book looks at social ethics and ethical poets reassessing two of Gower s perpetual concerns honest government and honest craft It considers Gower as a constitutional thinker whether in terms of law judicial corruption or a society of businessmen who would rewrite ethics in terms of business models It concludes with an examination of the Confessio in the culture of Portugal and Spain Russell Peck is the John Hall Deane Professor of English at the University of Rochester R F Yeager is Professor of English at the University of West Florida Contributors Stephanie L Batkie Helen Cooper Brian W Gastle Matthew Giancarlo Matthew W Irvin Yoshiko Kobayashi Robert J Meindl Peter Nicholson Maura Nolan Gabrielle Parkin Russell A Peck Ana S ez Hidalgo Larry Scanlon Karla Taylor Kim Zarins R F Yeager Paul Bowles's Literary Engagement with Morocco Bouchra Benlemlih, 2018-01-05 This study argues that Paul Bowles is more perceptive than many American travelers in Morocco The book provides us with what are perhaps the most sustained meditations to date on Bowles s translation work and his autobiography as well as perceptive analyses of key stories such as A Distant Episode and Here to Learn and his second novel Let It Come Down set primarily in Tangier The chapter on translation dwells on the complex interactions between Moroccan storytellers and Bowles The work considers translation as a site where the oral and written colonial and post colonial scene and English and Maghrebi come face to face it is a place where things are worked out in dynamic interaction The chapter on Bowles s autobiography Without Stopping urges us to take this piece of self writing famously dubbed Without Telling by William Burroughs more seriously drawing our attention to baroque architectural features of mind and external landscape worlds distorted by mirrors dreams and fluid transit where forms morph The work also highlights difference between experience and representation of experience through language transformed through the prism of memory In the chapter on Without Stopping as well as in my discussions of Bowles s fiction I provide useful elaborations of connections between Bowles s work and that of Edgar Allan Poe My reading of one of Bowles s best known stories A Distant Episode brings to the surface a recognition that the tragic fate of the Professor the story s protagonist is an outcome of his inability to admit that cultures are not static The academically trained linguist demonstrates an unwillingness or inability to adapt to change or to read cultural signs accurately The message is that Morocco is not stuck in time and cannot be held in place by Orientalist fantasies or preconceived externally derived intellectual constructs and assumptions The book concludes that against the grain of Samuel Huntington s notion of Clash of Civilizations Bowles s poetic and geographical journey forcefully projects cosmopolitanism and transnational attention confirming that civilizations and identities open up rather than shut down war or clash The Livingstons of Livingston manor E. Brockholst Livingston, 1910 Being the history of that Branch of the Scottish House of Callendar which settled in the English Province of New York during the Reign of Charles the Second and also including an

Changing the Way You Think Sheldon Malone, 2015-12-30 It was during an isolated tour of military duty that the author Sheldon Malone was led to compile these devotionals written over the years into a one year devotional book designed to encourage readers to look at Gods Word from a whole new perspective by changing the way they thought It was not until he changed his thinking that he truly began to see the transforming power of God manifested in his life in tangible ways This is precisely why we have to allow God to expand our territory and horizon by permitting Him to change the way we think through His Word As you read each devotional this authors prayer is that you will find strength and encouragement to allow God to propel you into higher heights and deeper depths in the things of the Kingdom The Word of God may just give you a different perspective as it encourages you to change your thinking in order to achieve a new mindset
