Creating Strong Kids Through Writing is a resource teachers will turn to again and again when they seek writing lessons that although short in duration are lasting in their personal impact on student growth Grades 4-8 1001 Best Websites for Educators Timothy Hopkins, 2003 More than 1000 annotated entries of great Websites Click on a link to go to the website no typing in long URL addresses Teaching with Poverty and Equity in Mind Eric Jensen, 2022-05-26 Learn how you can succeed with the students who need you most in ways you never thought possible In this thought provoking book renowned educator and learning expert Eric Jensen takes his most personal profound look yet at how poverty and inequity hurt students and their chances for success in life and how teachers across all grade levels and subject areas can infuse equity into every aspect of their practice Drawing from a broad survey of research personal and professional experience and inspiring real life success stories Teaching with Poverty and Equity in Mind explains how teachers can Build relationships with students and create a classwide in group where all learners feel a sense of safety and belonging Incorporate relevance and cultural responsiveness into curriculum and instruction increasing student buy in and replacing compliance with collaboration and leadership Use the uplifting power of stories to optimize energy and engagement and foster growth mindsets Provide clear actionable feedback that empowers students to evaluate and direct their own learning Shift from disciplining students to coaching them with empathy de-escalating disruptions and fostering more productive behaviors Build stronger brains and cultivate capacity through powerful accelerated learning tools Take steps to become a reflective and equitable educator examining and debunking harmful biases and establishing personal and professional habits for a lifetime of growth This insightful comprehensive guide also includes reflection prompts and downloadable tools and templates to help you move forward with implementation If we truly believe all students deserve a high quality education we need to commit to equity It starts with each one of us It starts with you Child of the Sun Lonnn Taylor, 2020-09-24 Historian Lonnn Taylor built a career as a curator in history museums including the Smithsonian Institution In retirement he wrote weekly columns on the people and places of Texas signed the Rambling Boy that were distributed widely in print and on the radio This book stands out from his numerous other books on historical and literary topics it is the only one he wrote about himself and the last book he wrote before he died in June 2019 It describes how his experience of growing up in the Philippines from 1947 to 1955 shaped his entire life by teaching him the destructive power of war In the Philippines his father was employed as a civil engineer building and rebuilding roads and bridges in the war devastated islands I lived most of my daily life in a well protected bubble of white colonialism he says in this memoir of his youth and thought nothing about it Despite that well protected bubble Taylor was aware of the ruins all around him the ravages of bombs and artillery shells and of his Filipino neighbors unbowed by their loss of wealth and privilege or their confinement and starvation in Japanese internment camps The manifest strengths and resilience of a society blended of Malay Chinese Spanish and American cultures made him a lifelong believer in the benefits of multiculturalism even as he bore witness to the islands postcolonial woes a feudal agricultural system maintained by landlords with private armies corruption so endemic that even post office clerks expected tips for selling stamps and deadly outbreaks of personal violence As an American child in the Philippines and then inevitably an outsider in the postwar America he returned to at fifteen Taylor honed a keen and varied sense of difference in class culture and language This nuanced understanding can be heard throughout Child of the Sun as Taylor reflects on his innocent years conveying with hard earned worldliness and wisdom all the beauty and lasting conflict of a lost world and time

Discriminatory Bullying Esoh Elamé, 2013-06-20 This book is devoted to the relation between bullying at school and ethnicity gender sexual orientation and disability In examining the interactions between bullying and discrimination the authors set out from the premise that the current practice of intercultural education does not systematically address the issue of bullying as evidenced by the lack within schools of intercultural education projects The starting point for the work is a survey conducted in ten European countries on a sample of about 9 000 students including immigrants and natives The research provides important information on which factors deserve special attention when formulating interventions in the classroom with the aim of preventing or combating discriminatory bullying If intercultural education is called upon to handle the fight against any form of discrimination it cannot shirk from addressing the issue of bullying discrimination The results represent a sound stimulating basis for broad and realistic reflections on discriminatory bullying and intercultural education and show that intercultural pedagogy needs to be appropriately equipped theoretically This book will be an indispensable tool for those seeking a thorough understanding of the new challenges facing intercultural education and the means of overcoming them On that basis innovative education practices should be developed with the aim of spreading a culture of non violence and intercultural dialogue

Kids on Earth Howard Blumenthal, Robert C. Pianta, 2025-09-08 In this visionary effort students take the lead in reimagining public education for the twenty first century advocating for a more active personalized and relational approach to learning Twenty first century youth are hungry for new ways to learn Their world is global mobile and rich with opportunities previous generations couldn't possibly have imagined As they make clear in this book the old standards of schooling no longer apply In Kids on Earth Howard Blumenthal and Robert C Pianta go straight to the source students themselves to rethink public education for the five billion young minds projected to be learning by 2050 Blumenthal and Pianta interview children and teenagers from more than seventy countries along with parents teachers and learning experts to build from their perspectives a scalable global framework for radical educational change New School in contrast to old school is a foundational concept with three guiding pillars learning is active learning is personal and learning is relational Its teachings emphasize cognitive science memory and relationships aligning learning with contemporary lived experience New School also appreciates Not School external instruction that involves media technology and other forms of learning Integrating these spheres Blumenthal and Pianta argue would better reflect our hyperconnected innovative world motivating students to succeed within it Kids on Earth calls not for reform but reinvention an ambitious all hands on deck
