Being Dead Otherwise Anne Allison, 2023-02-13 With an aging population declining marriage and childbirth rates and a rise in single households more Japanese are living and dying alone Many dead are no longer buried in traditional ancestral graves where descendants would tend their spirits and individuals are increasingly taking on mortuary preparation for themselves In Being Dead Otherwise Anne Allison examines the emergence of new death practices in Japan as the old customs of mortuary care are coming undone She outlines the proliferation of new industries services initiatives and businesses that offer alternative means ranging from automated graves collective grave sites and crematoria to one stop mortuary complexes and robotic priests for tending to the dead These new burial and ritual practices provide alternatives to long standing traditions of burial and commemoration of the dead In charting this shifting ecology of death Allison outlines the potential of these solutions to radically reorient sociality in Japan in ways that will impact how we think about the end of life identity tradition and culture in Japan and beyond [The Works of the Rev. Calamy, 1838 What's These Worlds Coming To? Jean-Luc Nancy, Aurélien Barrau, 2021-05-20 The eminent philosopher and an emerging astrophysicist return to the ancient art of cosmology in a study of plural worlds and their rebuilding Our contemporary challenge according to Jean Luc Nancy and Aurelien Barrau is that a new world has stolen up on us We no longer live in a world but in worlds We do not live in a universe anymore but rather in a multiverse We no longer create we appropriate and montage And we no longer build sovereign hierarchical political institutions we form local assemblies and networks of cross national assemblages and we do this at the same time as we form multinational corporations that no longer pay taxes to the state Nancy and Barrau invite us on an uncharted walk into barely known worlds when an everyday French idiom What's this world coming to is used to question our conventional thinking about the world We soon find ourselves living among heaps of odd bits and pieces that are amassing without any unifying force or center living not only in a time of ruin and fragmentation but in one of rebuilding Astrophysicist Aurelien Barrau articulates a major shift in the paradigm of contemporary physics from a universe to a multiverse Meanwhile Jean Luc Nancy's essay Of Struction is a contemporary comment on the project of deconstruction and French poststructuralist thought Together Barrau and Nancy argue that contemporary thought has shifted from deconstruction to what they carefully call the struction of dis order

Understanding the Many Byeonguk Yi, 2002 First Published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The First Principle in Late Neoplatonism Jonathan Greig, 2020-11-04 In The First Principle Jonathan Greig examines the philosophical theology of the two Neoplatonists Proclus and Damascius 5th 6th centuries A D on the One as the first cause Both philosophers address a tension in the Neoplatonic tradition namely that the One was seen as absolutely transcendent yet it was also seen as intimately related to other things as the source of their unity and being Proclus solution is to posit intermediate causes after the One while Damascius posits a distinct principle the Ineffable above the One This book provides a new thorough study of the theories of causation that lead each to their respective position and reveals crucial insights involved in a rigorous negative theology employed in metaphysics Things That Bother Me Galen Strawson, 2018-03-13 An original collection of lauded philosopher Galen Strawson's writings on the self and consciousness naturalism and pan psychism Galen Strawson might be described as the Montaigne of modern philosophers endlessly curious enormously erudite unafraid of strange difficult and provocative propositions and able to describe them clearly in other words he is a true essayist Strawson also shares with Montaigne a particular fascination with the elastic and elusive nature of the self and of consciousness Of the essays collected here A Fallacy of Our Age an inspiration for Vendela Vida's novel Let the Northern Lights Erase Your Name takes issue with the commencement address cliché that life is a story Strawson questions whether it is desirable or even meaningful to think about life that way The Sense of the Self offers an alternative account in part personal of how a distinct sense of self is not at all incompatible with a sense of the self as discontinuous leading Strawson to a position that he sees as in some ways Buddhist Real Naturalism argues that a fully naturalist account of consciousness supports a belief in the immanence of consciousness in nature as a whole also known as panpsychism while in the final essay Strawson offers a vivid account of coming of age in the 1960s Drawing on literature and life as much as on philosophy this is a book that prompts both argument and wonder This Thing of Ours Frederick Joseph, 2025-05-06 The powerful and timely YA novel debut from two time New York Times best selling author Frederick Joseph is a deeply heartfelt story and a rallying cry against book banning In an instant Ossie Brown's entire future is in jeopardy when a torn ACL ends his promising basketball career Now that basketball is no longer a major part of his identity Ossie a Black teen who doesn't come from wealth and privilege must navigate his new place in the social and academic ecosystems of his affluent predominantly white school When a Black teacher encourages him to join her highly regarded writing program Ossie begins to find a new purpose buoyed by not only the rich works of literature by marginalized authors he's now reading but also by new friends who see him as something more than an asset to the sports program Everything changes when some students viral anti woke video puts the teacher's job the writing program and even Ossie's friends safety at risk and Ossie must find his true voice This unflinching novel confronts critical issues like racism and classism the treatment of student athletes homophobia and book banning while weaving together a moving testament to family romance friendship and the power of words Dublin Dead Gerard O'Donovan, 2012-03-13 Irish detective Mike Mulcahy returns in this suspenseful follow up to the highly acclaimed international bestseller The Priest and now he's hot on the trail of an international drugs gang One year later DI Mike Mulcahy is exactly where he wants to be coordinating international intelligence for Ireland's National Drugs Unit But with the economy in meltdown and his department facing tough cutbacks his dream job is in jeopardy Then Mulcahy spots a possible link between the murder of a Dublin gangster in Spain and a massive shipment of cocaine abandoned off the south coast of Ireland Could this be the break he's been praying for Meanwhile reporter Siobhan Fallon is still recovering from her ordeal at the hands of a sadistic killer Work is her only refuge and while she is an emotional basket case her nose for a story is as sharp as ever When a suicide turns out to have a bizarre missing person's angle she is convinced there is something darker to it But with a vital piece of evidence beyond her grasp she has to turn to Mulcahy for help Mulcahy and Fallon have no idea what deadly ground they are setting out on together or that their journey will lead them on a twisted trail of terror to the rocky shores and windswept hills of West Cork and a blood drenched showdown with a remorseless killer

Background Practices Hubert L. Dreyfus, 2017-06-16 This volume presents a selection of Hubert Dreyfus's pioneering work in bringing phenomenology and existentialism to bear on the philosophical and scientific study of the mind Each of the thirteen essays interprets, develops and extends the insights of his predecessors working in the European philosophical tradition One of Dreyfus' central contributions to reading the historical canon of philosophy comes from his recognition that great philosophers help us to understand the background practices of a culture the practices that shape and embody our most basic understanding of ourselves and the things and situations we encounter in our world Background practices are all too often overlooked completely or else their importance is misunderstood Each chapter in this volume shows in one way or another how a broad range of philosophical topics can only be properly understood when we recognize how they are grounded in the background practices that shape our lives and give meaning to our activities, our tasks, our normative commitments, our aims and our goals

Space, Time, and Stuff Frank Arntzenius, Cian Seán Dorra, 2012-01-19 Frank Arntzenius presents a series of radical ideas about the structure of space and time and establishes a new metaphysical position which holds that the fundamental structure of the physical world is purely geometrical structure He argues that we should broaden our conceptual horizons and accept that spaces other than spacetime may exist

Real Materialism Galen Strawson, 2008-05-29 Real Materialism draws together papers written over twenty years by Galen Strawson in philosophy of mind and metaphysics Strawson focuses on five main areas of enquiry 1 the nature of the physical consciousness the mind/body problem and the prospects for panpsychism 2 the self the subject of experience self-consciousness and the narrative self 3 free will and moral responsibility 4 the nature of thought and intentionality and their connection with consciousness 5 the problem of causation with particular reference to the philosophy of David Hume
