Lost and Found in Johannesburg Mark Gevisser, 2024-05-01 An intimate map of the South African city during and after apartheid Illuminating unsettling engrossing often funny and in a word brilliant Claire Messud New York Times bestselling author of This Strange Eventful History Lost and Found in Johannesburg begins with a transgression the armed invasion of a private home in the city of Mark Gevisser's birth But far more than a harrowing account of a break in this is a daring exploration of place and the boundaries upon which identities are mapped As a white child in apartheid South Africa Gevisser becomes obsessed with a street guide called Holmden's Register of Johannesburg which literally erases entire black townships Johannesburg he realizes is full of divisions between black and white rich and poor gay and straight In this book he embarks on a quest to understand the inner life of his city using maps family photographs shards of memory newspaper clippings and courtroom testimony to chart his intimate history of Johannesburg He traces his family's journey from a Lithuanian shtetl to the white suburban neighborhoods where separate servants quarters were legally required at every house Gevisser who eventually marries a black man tells stories of others who've learned to define themselves within across and against the city's boundaries He recalls the double lives of gay men like Phil and Edgar the ever present housekeepers and gardeners and the private swimming pools where blacks and whites could be discreetly intimate And he explores physical barriers like The Wilds a large park dividing Johannesburg's affluent Northern Suburbs from two of its poorest neighborhoods It is this park that the three men who held Gevisser at gunpoint crossed the night of their crime An ode to both the marked and unmarked landscape of one man's past Lost and Found in Johannesburg is an existential guide to one of the most complex cities on earth Gevisser is unflinching in his account of the complex contradictions that still haunt his country The New Yorker Outstanding Mark Gevisser does for Johannesburg what Orhan Pamuk did for Istanbul as intimate and sophisticated a guide as one would wish for to this great troubled metropolis Teju Cole PEN Hemingway Award winning author of Open City Brilliantly maps out multiple worlds fractured by race class and history as complex and beautiful as any memoir I've ever read Dinaw Mengestu author of Someone Like Us An often moving account of the ways we navigate our emotional and geographical landscapes Kirkus Reviews This Week in South Africa, 1995 The African National Congress and the Regeneration of Political Power Susan Booysen, 2011-11-11 The African National Congress is light years beyond the liberation movement of old It remains a juggernaut but its control and dominance are no longer watertight The

ANC lives the contradictions of weaknesses cracks and factions while retaining its colossal status As a party movement it draws on its liberation credentials and extracts immense power from its deep anchorage in South Africa s people It is immersed in electoral politics that marks the state of its overwhelming power cyclically As government the ANC is the object of protest but not protest designed to bring the ruling party to its knees The ANC is in command of the state yet fails to definitively counter the deficits that make South Africa s democracy seem so diluted Its incredulous and thus far trusting supporters condemn but only rarely punish deployees who do not pass through the eye of the needle The ANC and the Regeneration of Political Power unpacks these contradictions It focuses on four faces of the ANC s political power the organisation the people political parties and elections and policy and government and explores how the ANC has acted since 1994 to continuously regenerate its power By 2011 12 the power configurations around the ANC were converging to a conjuncture holding vexing uncertainties This book presents insights into how South African politics in many ways synonymous with the politics of the ANC is likely to unfold in years and possibly decades to come

Psychological Assessment in South Africa Sumaya Laher,Kate Cockcroft,2013-01-01 This book provides an overview of the research related to psychological assessment across South Africa The thirty six chapters provide a combination of psychometric theory and practical assessment applications in order to combine the currently disparate research that has been conducted locally in this field Existing South African texts on psychological assessment are predominantly academic textbooks that explain psychometric theory and provide brief descriptions of a few testing instruments Psychological Assessment in South Africa provides in depth coverage of a range of areas within the broad field of psychological assessment including research conducted with various psychological instruments The chapters critically interrogate the current Eurocentric and Western cultural hegemonic practices that dominate the field of psychological assessment The book therefore has the potential to function both as an academic text for graduate students as well as a specialist resource for professionals including psychologists psychometrists remedial teachers and human resource practitioners

Politics at a Distance from the State Lucien van der Walt,Kirk Helliker,2022-08-23 For decades most anti capitalist and anti imperialist movements identified radical transformation with capturing state power The collapse of these statist projects from the 1970s led to a global crisis of left and working class politics But crisis has also opened space for rediscovering alternative society centered anti capitalist modes of bottom up change operating at a distance from the state These have registered important successes in practice such as the Zapatistas in Mexico and Rojava in Syria They have been a key influence on movements from Occupy in United States to the landless in Latin America to anti austerity struggles in Europe and Asia to urban movements in Africa Their lineages include anarchism syndicalism autonomist Marxism philosophers like Alain Badiou and radical popular praxis This path breaking volume recovers this understanding of social transformation long side lined but now resurgent like a seed in the soil that keeps breaking through and growing It provides case studies with reference to South Africa and Zimbabwe and includes a dossier of key texts from a century of anarchists syndicalists insurgent unionists and anti apartheid activists in South Africa Originating in an African summit of radical academics struggle veterans and social movements the book includes a preface from John Holloway Democratising Local Government ,2002 Local government is at the forefront of development In South Africa the ambitious policy objectives of post apartheid reconstruction and development hinge on the successful creation of a democratic tier of government close to the people An entirely new system of developmental local government has thus been introduced As is the case in many developing countries the responsibilities of municipalities in South Africa have been extended dramatically often without adequate resources Managing municipalities for development therefore requires political will and strategic intervention The book provides a comprehensive introduction to developmental local government It includes the design of the new local government system and the issues posed by decentralisation an overview of specific challenges of urban and rural municipalities a discussion of special issues facing local government including poverty gender and environment new tools for local government including budgeting indicators municipal partnerships and capacity building The Report: South Africa 2013 Oxford Business Group,2013-09-04 The Rainbow Nation benefits from an internationally competitive private sector which accounts for roughly 70% of GDP and extremely competitive infrastructure its utility sector for example produces just under half of the total power generated on the African continent South Africa represents by far the most developed market in Africa but there are still some structural challenges it is grappling with Government strategies have set a target of increasing labour market participation from 54% in 2010 to 65% by 2030 bringing the number of workers in the formal sector to 25 3m people and lowering unemployment from 25% to 6% While its fiscal space is narrow long term investments in infrastructure education and health are expected to be key to attaining its growth potential Recent years have seen both the public and private sectors look to strengthen regulatory frameworks in mining and industry in some cases like the automotive sector with impressive results Advancing a Human Rights Agenda in South Africa ,2009 One World, Many Voices David Sewart,1995 Psychiatry of Intellectual Disability Across Cultures ,2023-10-18 Intellectual disability is a lifelong condition involving deficits in both intellectual and adaptive functioning Individuals with intellectual disability experience a greater burden of co occurring physical and mental illness compared to the general population and often need a significant degree of support from healthcare professionals and carers as well as family and friends Additionally their lives can be greatly influenced both positively and negatively by the cultures in which they exist including societal attitudes belief systems and norms An insightful addition to the Oxford Cultural Psychiatry series Psychiatry of Intellectual Disability across Cultures explores the health support structures and societal attitudes towards people with intellectual disabilities throughout the world Written by international experts of intellectual disability and mental health this comprehensive textbook covers broad topics such as anthropology mental health physical health research and sexuality It also comprises chapters dedicated to specific geographic regions such as Africa America Australasia Europe India the Middle East and the United Kingdom and Ireland Second Interim Report on Aspects of the Law Relating to AIDS South African Law Commission,1998 Migration and Health in Southern Africa Robin Cohen,2004 South Africa Yearbook ,2009 Hypogene Karst Regions and Caves of the World Alexander Klimchouk,Arthur N. Palmer,Jo De Waele,Augusto S. Auler,Philippe Audra,2017-08-17 This book illustrates the diversity of hypogene speleogenetic processes and void conduit patterns depending on variations of the geological environments by presenting regional and cave specific case studies The cases include both well known and newly recognized hypogene karst regions and caves of the world They all focus on geological hydrogeological geodynamical and evolutionary contexts of hypogene speleogenesis The last decade has witnessed the boost in recognition of the possibility global occurrence and practical importance of hypogene karstification speleogenesis i e the development of solutional porosity and permeability by upwelling flow independent of recharge from the overlying or immediately adjacent surface Hypogene karst has been identified and documented in many regions where it was previously overlooked or misinterpreted The book enriches the basis for generalization and categorization of hypogene karst and thus improves our ability to adequately model hypogene karstification and predict related porosity and permeability It is a book which benefits every researcher student and practitioner dealing with karst Who's who of Southern Africa ,2005 Vols for 1967 70 include as a section Who s who of Rhodesia Mauritius Central and East Africa Making Development Work:Legislative Reform for Institutional Transformation and Good Governance Ann Willcox Seidman,Robert B.
