

Sample Essay on Friendship and its Value

4 pages | 775 words

So many people have been trying to give a proper definition to the most valuable type of interpersonal relationship – friendship. There are lots of books, research papers, poems, essays about this marvelous notion. However, nobody can provide the exact meaning of this word just because it is something that cannot be studied or explained. The essence friendship bears are hidden in the depth of people's souls, and each of us perceives this notion in a different way. This friendship essay example aims at defining the reasons why people become close in communication and evaluating the influence of having reliable soul mates throughout the whole life. The concept friendship is complicated from its core meaning. Some scientists claim that extremes meet and people with different tastes, worldviews can get on like a house on fire. Other experts state that the bond between two people can be created on the basis of similar interests, outlooks. The consequential derivation is that the level of similarity of your hobbies or tastes with other people don't influence whether you become true friends or not. Another possible underlying ground in finding friendship and love can be characters complementarities. If one person is introvert, his soul mate is likely to be extrovert. In this way, the former one will encourage his friend to open up emotionally to each other while the latter will give motivating spur to be more communicative and sociable. The identical rule can be applied to the way how women or men choose their Mr or Ms Right. Partners should form a great harmonious unity based on differences. It is true that there are various instances of people who are friends or in love while having very similar features of character. From my perspective, such situations are exceptions, not a tendency. Building stable relationships and emotional bond is a tedious work for both people involved. Your characters cannot be ideal puzzles no matter how much your socio types supplement each other. Therefore, both of you should work on your behavior to reach the desired mutual understanding. All friendship has a run of bad luck, and this is the time when the experience friendship has is examined. Friend and friendship relationships are not only about funny jokes, spending time together, sharing ideas. It is about revealing something within the person's soul and inner spiritual world. When difficulties arise in your life, your nearest and dearest are checked if they are not fair-whether friends. These are people who won't come to you when you are in trouble. Many people claim that the importance friendship is checked in the time of somebody's success or triumph. We have an inclination to be envious, just some of us can suppress this negative emotion while others don't hide it at all. Friend is someone you can trust with your happiness. If he or she cannot share this positive moment of your life, maybe, it is not a good companion. The value of friendship is exceptionally significant in human psychological development. We all live under pressure of time, problems, hurdles, emotional crises. Talking to someone you trust is the most...

Kalbfleisch,2013-09-13 Interpersonal relationships are the core of our societal system and have been since before the dawn of civilization In today s world friends lovers companions and confidants make valuable contributions to our everyday lives These are the relationships whose members are not automatically participants as a result of their birth and kin affiliations The focus is on these relationships that must be forged from the sometimes indifferent and sometimes hostile world Yet there is still much that is not known about how these relationships evolve how partners communicate in on going relationships how people keep their relationships together and how they cope when they fall apart Primary to the focus of this book is the underlying theme of evolving interpersonal relationships from the initial encounter to the mature alliance The contributors to this volume provide a contemporary perspective for the study of interpersonal relationships Fresh areas of scholarly inquiry are presented and existing approaches are re examined Research in the introductory chapters breaks new ground and appraises the ultimate question of what impact initial interactions have on further relational development The mid section of the volume concerns communication issues that confront the members of a relationship in process focusing on how conflict and jealousy are communicated to a relational partner This research considers relational development as well as obstacles and barriers to evolving relationships The concluding chapters probe the question Ultimately do all good things have to come to an end Employing innovative techniques to examine maturing and disengaging relationships the research presented here focuses on how interpersonal relationships become committed and mature

Human Rights and the Care of the Self

Alexandre Lefebvre, 2018-04-19 When we think of human rights we assume that they are meant to protect people from serious social legal and political abuses and to advance global justice In Human Rights and the Care of the Self Alexandre Lefebvre turns this assumption on its head showing how the value of human rights also lies in enabling ethical practices of self transformation Drawing on Foucault's notion of care of the self Lefebvre turns to some of the most celebrated authors and activists in the history of human rights such as Mary Wollstonecraft Henri Bergson Eleanor Roosevelt and Charles Malik to discover a vision of human rights as a tool for individuals to work on improve and transform themselves for their own sake This new perspective allows us to appreciate a crucial dimension of human rights one that can help us to care for ourselves in light of pressing social and psychological problems such as loneliness fear hatred patriarchy meaninglessness boredom and indignity
