D Act It Out! — From Page to Stage (Chapter 5)

This chapter opens with Lennie alone in the great barn. There is a description of the barn before Lennie is described sitting in the hay with a little dead puppy lying in front of him. Imagine that you are producing Of Mice and Men for the theatre. How would you direct this scene from the beginning of the chapter to when the clang of horseshoes is first heard outside?

1 Rewrite the passage as a script with stage directions. Consider the following points:

1. You need to guide the audience's attention. How do they start off with? How do you arrange this?
2. What atmosphere do you want to create and how would you do this?
3. After setting the scene, how would you direct the audience's attention towards Lennie? Would he have been there from the start? Would he have been facing the audience or have his back to them?
4. The disclosure of the death of the puppy is a shock after the tranquil scene setting. How would you achieve this? What effect would the puppy be revealed to be dead?
5. Would you use any music? What kind? Would it change or stop at a particular point? How would it add to the atmosphere you are trying to create?

How would you direct the actor to create a particular effect? Think about the various emotions that Lennie feels in the scene. How might you convey them in the volume and pitch of his voice? What notes might you give the actor playing him?

6. How do you want the audience to feel during this scene? How do you want them to react to seeing the dead puppy for the first time? What do you want them to feel towards Lennie? Sympathy? Pity? Anger?

2 In small groups, act out your script of this scene. Which version did you like best? Why?
