P1 Geography 2014 November Paper:

Discombobulation Wayne Rudolph Davidson, 2015-09-16 Wayne Rudolph Davidson delves deeper into his family history in this second book of his When Clans Collide trilogy Exploring his own personal branch that stems from the genealogical trunk of the distinguished Davidson family tree he writes from the perspective of an African American male born in the post World War II era caught in a firestorm of extraordinary social change civil disturbance and a burgeoning drug culture His life runs in tandem with the migration of African Americans from the rural South to urban centers in the North and historic events such as the assassinations of President John F Kennedy Malcolm X the Rev Martin Luther King Jr and Senator Robert F Kennedy He seamlessly blends his family genealogy and his own mistakes and triumphs with American history From being an unemployed autoworker living and working in a dark tunnel to positions of responsibility and authority as a member of the U S Army in strategic places around the world in this book the author gets a chance rarely given to African American men to tell his story before his peers instead of before a magistrate

The War Lawyers Craig Jones, 2020-11-26 Over the last 20 years the world's most advanced militaries have invited a small number of military legal professionals into the heart of their targeting operations spaces which had previously been exclusively for generals and commanders These professionals trained and hired to give legal advice on an array of military operations have become known as war lawyers The War Lawyers examines the laws of war as applied by military lawyers to aerial targeting operations carried out by the US military in Iraq and Afghanistan and the Israel military in Gaza Drawing on interviews with military lawyers and others this book explains why some lawyers became integrated in the chain of command whereby military targets are identified and attacked whether by manned aircraft drones and or ground forces and with what results This book shows just how important law and military lawyers have become in the conduct of contemporary warfare and how it is understood Jones argues that circulations of law and policy between the US and Israel have bolstered targeting practices considered legally questionable contending that the involvement of war lawyers in targeting operations enables legitimises and sometimes even extends military violence

Knowledge, Class, and Economics Theodore Burczak, Robert Garnett Jr., Richard McIntyre, 2017-10-16 Knowledge Class and Economics Marxism without Guarantees surveys the Amherst School of non determinist Marxist political economy 40 years on its core concepts intellectual origins diverse pathways and enduring tensions The volume's 30 original essays reflect the range of perspectives and projects that comprise the Amherst School the interdisciplinary community of scholars that has enriched and extended while never ceasing to interrogate and recast the anti economic Marxism first formulated in the mid 1970s by Stephen Resnick Richard Wolff and their economics Ph D students at the University of Massachusetts Amherst The title captures the defining ideas of the Amherst School an open system framework that presupposes the complexity and contingency of social historical events and the parallel overdetermination of the relationship between subjects and objects of inquiry along with a novel conception of class as a process of performing appropriating and distributing surplus labor In a collection of 30 original essays chapters confront readers with the core concepts of overdetermination and class in the context of economic theory postcolonial theory cultural studies continental philosophy economic geography economic anthropology psychoanalysis and literary theory studies Though Resnick and Wolff's writings serve as a focal point for this collection their works are ultimately decentered contested historicized reformulated The topics explored will be of interest to proponents and critics of the post structuralist postmodern turn in Marxian theory and to students of economics as social theory across the disciplines economics geography postcolonial studies cultural studies anthropology sociology political theory philosophy and literary studies among others
